Why was this book written?

It was written to help you improve your knowledge of phrasal verbs in English. Phrasal verbs are verbs which have a main verb and a particle which, together, create one meaning (e.g. a plane takes off from the airport; an adult looks after a child). You will come across a great many phrasal verbs when you listen to and read English, and so it is important that you learn about their meanings and about how they are used. You can use this book either with a teacher or for self-study.

There are more than 5,000 phrasal verbs and related noun and adjective forms in use in English. This book focuses just on those phrasal verbs which you need to know for everyday spoken and written communication in English, and it aims to provide the information and practice which will help you understand and use them correctly.

How were the phrasal verbs in the book selected?

The approximately 1,000 phrasal verbs and related noun and adjective forms which are presented in this book were mainly selected from those identified as significant by the CANCODE corpus of spoken English developed at the University of Nottingham in association with Cambridge University Press, and the Cambridge International Corpus of written and spoken English (now known as the Cambridge English Corpus). You can also find them in the Cambridge Dictionary online by going to the following website: <http://dictionary.cambridge.org>

How is the book organised?

The book has 70 two-page units. The left-hand page explains the phrasal verbs that are presented in the unit. You will usually find an explanation of the meaning of each phrasal verb, an example of it in use and, where appropriate, any special notes about its usage. The right-hand page checks that you have understood the information on the left-hand page by giving you a series of exercises that practise the material just presented. The exercises pay particular attention to checking understanding of the phrasal verbs and how they are used so that you will be able to use them accurately and appropriately.

The units are organised into different sections:

First we start with important information about phrasal verbs in general (Units 1–5): what they are, how their grammar works and so on. This is an important training section, and we recommend you do these units first.

After the introductory units, there are units on the most common verbs which are used to form phrasal verbs (Units 6–12) and units on the most common particles found in phrasal verbs (Units 13–21).

The rest of the book teaches you the phrasal verbs which are associated with particular concepts (e.g. time), functions (e.g. giving and getting information) and topics (e.g. business, feelings, student life).

The book also has a key to all the exercises so that you can check your answers. At the back of this book, you will find a useful Mini dictionary. This provides clear definitions of all the phrasal verbs and related noun and adjective forms that appear in this book. The Mini dictionary also indicates the unit number where you can find a particular phrasal verb.

How should I use this book?

It is strongly recommended that you work through Units 1–5 first so that you become familiar with the way phrasal verbs operate and with the terminology that is used in the rest of the book. After that, you may work on the units in any order that suits you.

What else do I need in order to work with this book?

You need a notebook or file in which you can write down the phrasal verbs that you study in this book as well as any others that you come across elsewhere.

You also need to have access to a good dictionary. We strongly recommend the Cambridge Phrasal Verbs Dictionary as this gives exactly the kind of information that you need to have about phrasal verbs. Your teacher, however, may also be able to recommend other dictionaries that you will find useful.

We hope that this book will help you understand and use new or difficult phrasal verbs that crop up (see Unit 44 Student life: reading and writing) in your reading and listening in English and that, by the time you finish the units, you'll be saying: 'English phrasal verbs? Show me a new one and I'll figure out what it means in seconds!' (see Unit 69 American and Australian phrasal verbs).

Phrasal verbs: the basics

A What are phrasal verbs?

Phrasal verbs are verbs that consist of a verb and a particle.

verb	particle	example	meaning
look	up	You can look up any new words in your dictionary.	You can find the meaning of any new words in your dictionary.
go	through	I will go through your application form with you.	I will carefully read your application form and discuss it with you to make sure that it is correct.
make	out	I just can't make Jake out at all.	I just can't understand Jake's behaviour.

Particles are small words which you already know as prepositions or adverbs. Here are some of the most common phrasal verb particles:

about (a)round at away back down for in into off on out over through to up

B What do I need to know about phrasal verbs?

First you need to know the meaning of the whole phrasal verb as a unit. The Mini dictionary in this book will help you. For example, look means to use your eyes and up means the opposite of down, but the phrasal verb look up can have several different meanings:

Look the word up in the dictionary. [look up = search for information in a book/computer]

I'll look you up next time I'm in London. [look up = visit someone you have not seen for a long time]

Things are looking up. [look up = improve]

Next you need to know the grammar patterns of phrasal verbs, e.g. whether the verb takes an object. The table shows the way the grammar patterns are shown in this book and in many dictionaries. Note that sth means 'something'; sb means 'someone'.

grammar pattern	comment	example
eat out	the verb is used without an object	We were too tired to cook at home so we decided to eat out . [eat in a restaurant] Not: We decided to eat out a meal .
bring back sth or bring sth back	the verb must have a non-human object	This photograph brings back happy memories . [makes me remember or think about something from the past] Not: This photograph brings back my sister .
ask out sb or ask sb out	the verb must have a human object	I'd love to ask Poppy out . [invite Poppy to go to a place like a cinema or a restaurant] Not: I'd love to ask my dog out.
look after sb/sth	the object can be either human or non-human	I'll look after the baby while you're cooking. Will you look after my plants while I'm away?
ring sb back	the object must come before the particle	I'll ring you back later. [phone you again] Not: I'll ring back you .
look after sb/sth	the object must come after the particle	Can you look after the cat while I'm away? Not: Can you look the dog after while I'm away?
drop off sb/sth or drop sb/sth off	the object can be before or after the particle	I dropped off the present at her house. [delivered/left] I dropped the present off at her house.

Exercises

1.1 Underline the 11 phrasal verbs in these sentences.

- 1 I sent off the order last week but the goods haven't turned up yet.
- 2 I came across an interesting book in the university library and noted down the title.
- 3 The starter motor was playing up and the car broke down when we stopped at the service station.
- 4 I brought up this item at the last meeting. It's really time to sort out the problem.
- 5 I wish he'd stop messing us about! He's put the meeting off three times and now he wants to call it off altogether.

1.2 Match the 11 phrasal verbs from sentences 1-5 in exercise 1.1 above with their meanings from the box below.

cause inconvenience	deal with	stop working	find	arrive	mail	cancel
write	postpone	not work properly	mention

1.3 Decide which of these sentences contain errors. Explain why they are wrong and suggest a correct answer. Use the table in B to help you.

- 1 That song you just sang brings back memories of my days at college.
- 2 She looked the children after when their mother was in hospital.
- 3 I promised to ring my brother back. He called earlier when I was busy.
- 4 We ate out a wonderful dinner last night.
- 5 It was a beautiful summer evening so I asked the cat out for a drink.

1.4 Sometimes phrasal verbs are followed by a particular preposition to make three-part verbs. Try to learn these prepositions with the phrasal verbs. Look at these examples of three-part verbs, and then complete the sentences below with a preposition from the box. Use a dictionary or the Mini dictionary at the back of this book if necessary.

EXAMPLES I'm looking forward to the weekend.
She's been going out with him for six months now.

with	against	with	on	with
------	---------	------	----	------

- 1 She seems to look down people who are less intelligent than her.
- 2 To save money, the company decided to do away free parking for staff.
- 3 I came up a serious problem when I tried to save my work.
- 4 How can some students get away doing no work and yet pass the exams?
- 5 Her son is so horrible. I don't know how she puts up him.

The meaning of phrasal verbs

A The most common verbs

Here are the most common verbs that form part of phrasal verbs:

break	bring	call	come	cut	get	give	go	keep	knock look	make	pass	pick	pull	put	run	set	take	turn

Units 6–12 deal with a selection of these verbs which form a large number of useful, everyday phrasal verbs.

B Meanings

The basic meanings of the verbs in A refer to concrete actions (e.g. break means separate into pieces), but when they are part of phrasal verbs, they often have abstract meanings too. Sometimes the concrete meaning can help you guess the abstract meaning, for example, you can look back to wave goodbye to someone as you leave in a car (concrete meaning – look behind you), or you can look back on your past life (abstract meaning – remember or recall).

verb	concrete meaning	abstract meaning give	I gave my worksheet in at the end of the lesson. [handed it to the teacher]	Her parents finally gave in and let her go to the party. [agreed to something they had refused before]
get	She got on the bus. [entered]	Leo and Ella don't get on . [don't like each other and are not friendly to each other]
come	Would you like to come round this evening? [come to my home]	He was unconscious for three hours but came round in hospital. [became conscious again]

C Synonyms of phrasal verbs

A phrasal verb can often be replaced by a single verb with more or less the same meaning. The single-verb synonyms are often, but not always, more formal (see Unit 5, section C).

phrasal verb	single-verb synonym
put off	postpone take off	remove
turn up	arrive

less formal	more formal
Let's put off the meeting until Friday.	Let's postpone the meeting until Friday.
Please take off your shoes when you enter the temple.	Please remove your shoes when you enter the temple.
Everyone turned up on time for the meeting.	Everyone arrived on time for the meeting.

Tip

If you know a single-verb synonym of a phrasal verb, write it in your vocabulary notebook and note whether or not the phrasal verb is more informal.

Exercises

2.1 Complete these sentences using verbs from the list in A opposite.

- The car b..... down on the way to the airport.
- It took him a long time to g..... over his illness.
- It isn't easy to learn German but you must k..... on trying.
- If you'd like a lift to the station tomorrow, I can p..... you up at 9 a.m.
- Please t..... off your phones. The performance is about to begin.
- The heavy snow blocked the roads and c..... the farm off completely.

2.2 In which of the sentences in exercise 2.1 above could you put the particle in a different position?

2.3 Decide whether the phrasal verbs in these sentences are concrete or abstract in meaning, by writing C for concrete or A for abstract in the brackets.

EXAMPLE He looked up (C) and saw a hot-air balloon in the sky.

- I would never go against () my parents' wishes.
- Shall I cut out () this recipe from the food magazine? It looks good and is quick and easy to make.
- About five miles into our journey the engine cut out () and we broke down () completely. It was over an hour before the rescue service turned up ().
- Do we need to dress up () tonight or is it informal?
- I shall never really appreciate what people went through () during the war.

2.4 Replace the underlined verbs in these sentences with phrasal verbs made using the verbs and particles from the boxes below. If necessary, use the Mini dictionary at the end of this book.

make chase brush leave fall up for out aside out

- They just ignored my complaints; it made me very angry.
- I believed his story about having lost all his money. How stupid I was!
- I couldn't understand what he was saying with all the noise.
- Could you pursue Emily's report? She promised it last week but I haven't seen it yet.
- If you are phoning from outside the country, omit the first zero in the city code.

2.5 Use more formal equivalents from the box instead of the phrasal verbs in these sentences. Write the formal verbs in the correct form.

decline issue organise cancel escape

- The government have put out a statement condemning the recent protests.
- The union accepted the new pay deal and called off the strike.
- The number of people not owning a smartphone nowadays has gone down dramatically.
- There was a disturbance in Blackmoor Prison yesterday and three prisoners got away.
- Could you see to lunch for our visitors? There will be four of them.

Particles in phrasal verbs

This unit looks at the role of particles in phrasal verbs. A particle is either a preposition (e.g. from, to, with) or an adverb (e.g. out, up, about). You can create phrasal verbs by adding different particles to a basic verb.

What do particles mean?

In some phrasal verbs the particle has a clear basic meaning. Look at the examples of different particles used with the verb invite. On the right, you can see what the original speaker probably said.

Jack invited me out .	Jack Let's go out together.
Rosie invited me in .	Rosie Please come in!
Molly invited me over .	Molly Come to our place.
Alex invited me round .	Alex Come to my house for dinner or a drink.
James invited me up .	James Come upstairs to my flat.
Mia invited me along .	Mia Come with us!
Stan invited me back .	Stan Come back home with me.

What other meanings can particles have?

Most particles convey a number of different senses. For example, over can have various meanings, including:

- changing position, e.g. in fall over [fall to the ground] or move over [change the place where you are sitting or standing to make room for someone else].
- an idea of thoroughness, e.g. in read over [read thoroughly] or talk over [discuss something thoroughly before making a decision].

The meanings of particles are looked at in more detail in Units 13–21.

Where does the particle go?

With verbs that have an object:

- Sometimes the particle has to go before the object of the verb, e.g. I'm looking for my keys (not: ~~I'm looking my keys for~~).
- Sometimes it must go after the object, e.g. I have a lot of work on (not: ~~I have on a lot of work~~).
- Sometimes the particle may go either before or after the object, e.g. The thunder woke up the children or The thunder woke the children up.

Note that if the object is a pronoun (e.g. him, them), then the particle must go after it, e.g. The thunder woke them up (not: ~~The thunder woke up them~~).

Exercises

3.1 Look at section A and then answer the questions about these sentences.

- 1 My brothers were going to the cinema and they asked me along.
Did the speaker go to the cinema on her own, with her brothers or do we not know for sure?
- 2 When I took Ruby a birthday present, she asked me in but I had to get to my lecture.
Did the speaker go into Ruby's house?
- 3 When I saw George on the balcony, he asked me up.
Who was in a higher position, George or the speaker?
- 4 When the Richardsons asked me back after the concert I was happy to accept.
Where did the speaker go after the concert?
- 5 My cousin has asked me to go over to his flat this evening.
What word could replace over with no change in meaning?

3.2 Look at B opposite. Are the phrasal verbs underlined in the sentences below examples of the (a) or the (b) meanings of over?

- 1 Think it over before you make up your mind what to do next.
- 2 You may turn over the page now and read the exam questions.
- 3 It's raining too hard to drive. Pull over to the edge of the road.
- 4 Look over your answers before the end of the exam.

3.3 Look at C opposite. Then read these definitions and decide whether the sentences below are correct or incorrect. If necessary, correct them.

have on has, having, had have sth on to have an arrangement to do something (never in continuous tenses) have sb on to persuade someone that something is true when it is not, usually as a joke have on sth or have sth on if you have clothes or shoes on, you are wearing them (never in continuous tenses; never passive)

- 1 I have on three important meetings tomorrow.
- 2 John has an amazing tie on.
- 3 Sue was only having on her sisters when she told them she was planning to become a model.
- 4 I'm having a lot of work on today.
- 5 I don't believe you! I'm sure you're having me on.
- 6 Lola was wearing her new jeans this morning and she had on them yesterday.

3.4 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

- 1 to / you / for / make room / Can / move / over / your sister?
- 2 finished / she / over. / Harry / it / to read / When / her essay, / asked / Daisy
- 3 his house / tomorrow. / Luke / back / me / has invited / to
- 4 when he / Max / his driving test. / his parents / he'd failed / only having / was / told them / on
- 5 tomorrow? / What / you / on / do / have
- 6 the light / in her bedroom, / was / she / at home. / Eva / had / I knew / on / so

Nouns and adjectives based on phrasal verbs

Nouns made from verb + particle

In English we often create nouns from verbs, e.g. to invite / an invitation. In the same way it is sometimes possible to create a noun from a phrasal verb. Look at these examples.

Tom I got ripped off when I phoned that 0877 number [informal: was charged too much].
The call cost five pounds a minute!

Lily Yes, those numbers are a big rip-off.

Grace Her son dropped out of college last year. [gave up his course]

Ed Mm. There were a lot of dropouts that year. I wonder why?

Oliver Somebody broke in last night and stole a computer from the school. [entered by force to steal something]

Isla Really? That's the second break-in this year!

Rules for the use of verb + particle noun forms

- The plural is formed by adding -s to the particle, not the verb, e.g. break-ins, dropouts, rip-offs (not: breaks-in, dropouts, rips-off)
An exception is goings-on [strange or amusing events], which is always plural.
There was a lot of gossip about the goings-on at the office party.
- Verb + particle noun forms are sometimes written with a hyphen, e.g. break-in, check-in, cover-up; and sometimes without, e.g. dropout, checkout, crackdown.
Nouns with -out and -over are usually written as one word, e.g. dropout, lookout, checkout, handout, changeover, leftovers.
Nouns with -in, -up and less common particles usually have a hyphen, e.g. lie-in, mix-up, put-down, run-through.
- In pronunciation, the stress is on the verb, not the particle.
a BREAK-in at the office college DROPouts

Nouns made from particle + verb

Some phrasal verbs have noun forms where the particle is first. The stress in pronunciation is usually on the particle.

phrasal verb	particle + verb noun	example set out	outset	I knew from the outset that there would be problems. [beginning] fall down	downfall	The economic crisis caused the downfall of the government. [sudden failure or end]
look on	onlooker	Crowds of onlookers watched as the police arrested the man. [someone who watches an event but doesn't take part]

Adjectives

There are also adjectives which are based on phrasal verbs. Make a note of any you meet.

e.g. a broken-down vehicle [vehicle whose engine had stopped working] a breakdown vehicle [vehicle which helps drivers who have broken down] blocked-up drains [drains where the water cannot flow properly]

Exercises

4.1 Complete the following table. If a noun form does not exist, write 'none' in the table. Use a dictionary if necessary. Decide whether the noun is written with a hyphen or as one word.

phrasal verb	verb + particle noun

Metaphor and register

Multiple meanings of phrasal verbs

A phrasal verb can have a number of different meanings, e.g.

He got on the bus.
[entered the bus]

get on

Liam and Toby get on really well.
[like each other and are friendly]

Shh! I'm trying to get on with my work.
[continue doing my work]

Often there is no direct connection between the various meanings and you just have to learn each different meaning of the phrasal verb. The best way to do this is by trying to remember a sentence using the phrasal verb.

B

Literal and metaphorical meaning

Sometimes the basic meanings of a phrasal verb and the additional meanings are clearly linked. This is because some additional meanings are based on a metaphor or image which has a direct connection with its literal or basic meaning. A metaphor is a way of expressing something by comparing it with something else that has similar characteristics. Here is an example:

LITERAL (BASIC) MEANING

blow up a balloon [inflate or fill with air]

blow up a building
[make it explode]

METAPHORICAL MEANING

someone blows up
[suddenly becomes very angry]

Sometimes a phrasal verb exists as a phrasal verb only in the metaphorical meaning, but you can guess what it means from the meaning of the basic verb without the particle. For example:

These statistics look strange. Have we slipped up somewhere?

Here slip up [make a mistake] clearly comes from slip [fall usually because the floor is wet or the ground is icy].

Register

Another important aspect of phrasal verbs is register. Phrasal verbs are typical of spoken English or informal writing, e.g. letters to friends and articles in popular journalism. There are often one-word equivalents, or synonyms, for use in a more formal spoken or written style. For example: miss out a question or omit a question. See section 2C in Unit 2 for other examples.

As with all English vocabulary, there are some different uses from one geographical area to another. For example, British, American and Australian users of English all talk of clearing up a room [putting things away tidily], but only British and Australian speakers would use tidy up as a synonym.

See Unit 69 for more examples of how phrasal verbs differ in North America and Australia.

Exercises

5.1 Match the different meanings a–f of take in with the appropriate sentences 1–6 below.

- a) make smaller
 - b) allow in through a hole
 - c) deceive
 - d) give a bed to
 - e) include
 - f) understand the meaning or importance
- 1 Because so many passengers were stranded at the airport, some local families offered to take them in overnight.
 - 2 The news is so shocking – I still can't take it in.
 - 3 The excursion will take in two of the most beautiful castles in the region.
 - 4 Maria has lost weight – she's going to have to take in a lot of her clothes.
 - 5 Alfie was totally dishonest, but he was so charming that I was taken in by him.
 - 6 We'd better return to the shore at once – the boat seems to be taking in water.

5.2 These pairs of sentences show phrasal verbs which can be used in both literal and metaphorical ways. Explain the two meanings and the connection between them.

- 1 a) I stepped in a puddle of water and my feet are soaking now.
b) She stepped in to stop the argument from becoming more serious.
- 2 a) This music is rubbish. I wish you'd switch off the radio.
b) The lecture was so boring that I switched off.
- 3 a) There's a hole in my bag. I think my pen must have dropped out.
b) He dropped out of college and became a mechanic.
- 4 a) We tied the boxes down on the roof of the car.
b) Marcos dreams of travelling, but he feels tied down by his family and work responsibilities.

5.3 Use your knowledge of the basic verb in the underlined phrasal verbs as well as the context of the sentence in order to work out the meanings of the phrasal verbs.

- 1 What are you driving at? I wish you would say exactly what you mean!
- 2 The teacher did all she could to drum the vocabulary into her pupils before the exam.
- 3 The old education system used to cream off the best pupils and teach them in separate schools.
- 4 The noise of the children playing completely drowned out his speech.

5.4 Write a one-word formal equivalent for each of the underlined phrasal verbs.

As the rain didn't let up, the football game was called off. So the team got down to discussing its strategy for the next match instead. We didn't get out of the clubhouse until the cleaners turned up in the evening.

Over to you

If you encounter a phrasal verb that you thought you knew but it does not seem to make sense, use other clues in the context to work out what the meaning might be. It may be quite different from the meaning that you already knew.

Katie Yes, I was intending to, but right at the last minute something Maya Oh, I see. Well, you must come next time.

6.3 Rewrite the underlined words in these emails giving advice, using phrasal verbs with come.

 Reply Forward

I know that you are having to deal with a lot of problems at work every day at the moment, but don't worry, they're only temporary, and I've heard that a new job opportunity is going to arise, which could change things completely. Whenever your name is mentioned in conversation, everyone always speaks very highly of you.

 Reply Forward

You think you have met someone by pure chance who seems to share the same world view as you, but be careful, I don't think she is what she seems to be. Don't forget that, in the end, true love is mainly about finding someone you can trust.

Over to you

Learning verbs in pairs associated with a particular context can help you remember them. Look again at all the phrasal verbs on the opposite page. Try to make different pairs and write them in sentences putting them in context, as in section A.

Amelia's story

Amelia has been going through¹ a difficult time at work, so she decided to cheer herself up by going in for² a competition. The prize was a luxury holiday in the Caribbean. Amelia has had to go without³ a holiday for several years now, so she really wanted to win. The competition was to write a story beginning 'Suddenly the lights went out⁴...'. The problem was that Amelia could not think of an idea for her story.

'How can I go about⁵ getting a good idea?', she asked me. 'It must be something special so that the judges go for⁶ my story over all the others.' I suggested she went to the city library to go through⁷ some books of short stories – she might get some ideas there. So she went off⁸ to see what she could find.

She soon found some great stories. She read one and then another and she went on⁹ reading all day. Then she noticed a strange smell and suddenly the lights went out. The library was on fire! Of course, that gave her the idea for her story. I hope she wins.

go together	if two types of thing or people go together, they are usually found with each other	A bad cough and a sore throat often go together .

Tip

Many of the very common English phrasal verbs, for example the ones in Units 6–12, have several different meanings when combined with one particle. There are a few different meanings on this page for go on and go through; however, there are other possible meanings for both of these verb and particle combinations. Remember this if you meet a phrasal verb in a new or unusual context because it may have quite a different meaning there from one you are more familiar with.

Exercises

8.1 Complete the text below using the correct particles from the phrasal verbs in A opposite.

I was going (1) some old letters the other day when I found one from my friend Nancy. After school she had gone (2) to train as a doctor and ended up in Africa. Put verbs and relations with other people

If you ...	then ...
are put out	you are annoyed, often because of something that someone has done or said to you put up with sb/sth	you accept unpleasant behaviour or an unpleasant situation, even though you do not like it put sb on to/onto sth/sb	you tell them about something or someone that could help them, often something or someone they did not know about before

Exercises

11.1 Correct any mistakes in these sentences. If there are no mistakes, write correct at the end of the sentence.

- 1 I like sleeping in tents but I don't like putting up them.
- 2 Put that music on that you downloaded yesterday. I'd like to hear it.
- 3 We put last week in a new dishwasher. It's wonderful.
- 4 Will you put on the TV? I want to watch the tennis.
- 5 That light is too strong. Shall we put out it?

11.2 Complete the text using particles from the opposite page.

The screenshot shows an email window with a title bar containing a mail icon, 'Reply', and 'Forward' buttons. The main text area contains the following text with numbered blanks for completion:

'I don't know how Harry puts (1) with his boss. He works so hard but his boss even gets him to put the lights (2) for him when it starts to get dark, and it's always Harry who has to put (3) new shelves and do other jobs like that. His boss never thinks twice about putting him (4) at short notice when they've arranged a meeting. I know Harry feels put (5), but he never complains. We should really do what we can to put him (6) some better jobs.

11.3 Rewrite these sentences so that the actions are the opposite of the ones underlined. Use phrasal verbs from the opposite page and make any other necessary changes so that the sentences make sense.

EXAMPLE Please turn the radio off now. I'm trying to sleep.

Please put the radio on now. There's a programme I'd like to listen to.

- 1 Could you switch the light on please? I can't see to read.
- 2 They're pulling down those old buildings near the railway station.
- 3 The Scouts took their tent down very quickly and loaded it into their bus.
- 4 Could we possibly bring our meeting forward to 10 o'clock?
- 5 When we moved into our new house, we decided to remove an old, rather ugly fireplace.
- 6 Can you turn that music off, please? I can't concentrate on my work.

11.4 Here are some more phrasal verbs based on put. Match the phrasal verbs in the sentences 1-5 with the definitions a-e. Use a dictionary if necessary.

- 1 Harriet is very good at putting her ideas across.
- 2 We are always very careful and put the fire out after the barbecue.
- 3 I'm not putting that on. I'd look ridiculous in it!
- 4 Charlie has put up a poster about the concert. Have you seen it?
- 5 The plane was due to put down in Los Angeles at 3.50 a.m. but was diverted to San Francisco at the last minute.

- a) stick or fasten a piece of paper to something, e.g. a wall, so that it can be seen
- b) express in such a way that others can understand easily
- c) land
- d) put a piece of clothing on your body
- e) extinguish or stop something burning

Take in a physical sense

If you take apart something or take something apart, you separate it into its different parts.

Freddie loves taking clocks apart, but he never manages to put them together again.

If you take back something or take something back, you return it to the person or organisation that you bought or borrowed it from.

When you go into town to take back your books to the college library, could you also take these trousers back to the shop for me? They're too small.

If you take aside somebody or take somebody aside, you separate someone from a group of people so that you can speak to them privately.

My boss took me aside at the Christmas party and told me he was going to give me a promotion in the New Year.

If you take off, you suddenly leave a place, without telling anyone where you are going.

Most people stayed at the party until quite late, but Rose took off early for some reason.

Take in an abstract sense

phrasal verb	meaning	example
take up sth or take sth up	start doing a particular job or activity	My son has recently taken up collecting coins as a hobby.
take off sth or take sth off (sth)	subtract a particular amount from a total	The shop assistant took off ten per cent because the item was damaged.
take away sth or take sth away	subtract a first number from a second number	If you take 11 away from 33, you're left with 22.
take back sth or take sth back	admit that something you said was wrong	I shouldn't have called you lazy – I take it back .
take in sth or take sth in	look at something carefully, noticing all the details	He showed us a photo of his house, but I was so tired that I didn't really take it in .

Other senses of take

Lucy has started swimming regularly. She has taken out¹ a year's membership at a local sports club and has taken to² going to the swimming pool every lunch hour. She is so taken up with³ her swimming that she wouldn't even take me up on⁴ my offer to buy her lunch in the best restaurant in town. The exercise certainly takes it out of⁵ her – she is too exhausted to go anywhere in the evenings.

¹ subscribed to or registered for something officially

² started to do something often

³ very busy doing something

⁴ accept

⁵ makes her feel very tired

Tip

Because the most common verbs, e.g. take, get, make, have so many different phrasal verbs with different meanings associated with them, it is useful to group the meanings, as in the sections of this unit. Try to do this for other common verbs and their phrasal verbs as you meet new ones, and try to record an example sentence in your vocabulary notebook to help you remember them.

Exercises

12.1 Each line of this text contains a phrasal verb with take, but some of them are used incorrectly. If a line has a correct phrasal verb, tick the box. If the line is incorrect, cross out the incorrect word and write the correct word in the box.

EXAMPLE The watch was broken so I took it off to the shop.
 I bought a new jacket but it had a mark on it so I took it back.
 The shop assistant took me offside so that other people could be served.
 She said that if I was prepared to keep the jacket she would take away ten per cent. I didn't really take in what she was saying at first, but once I understood, I decided to take her over on the offer.

12.2 Use a phrasal verb from the opposite page to complete these dialogues.

- 1 Lewis I find it very offensive that you called Thomas an idiot.
Hugo OK, OK. Sorry, I shouldn't have said it. I
- 2 Matt Megan seems really keen on her tennis these days.
Clare Yes, she's really it. She's so with it that she's stopped going to the swimming pool.
- 3 Jude I tried to clean the inside of my laptop and I've put all the bits back but it isn't working.
Matthew Well, I'm not surprised! I warned you not to in the first place.
- 4 Paul I get so bored since I retired from my job.
Julia Well, why don't you golf?
- 5 Ali What's this figure here, £30?
Ryan It's what you get when you £15 from £45.
- 6 Freya You look exhausted these days.
Daniel Yes, teaching 28 hours a week really me.
- 7 Imogen Ollie left very suddenly, didn't he?
Layla Yes, he just without even saying goodbye.

To the surprise of everyone at the party, Ollie suddenly took off without saying goodbye.

Read this text about someone complaining about having to do housework. Notice how the particle up sometimes expresses the idea of completing or totally finishing something.

I spent all morning yesterday clearing up¹ my study. There were books and papers everywhere. Then I had to sweep up² the rubbish and dead leaves on the terrace. After that I tried to tidy up³ my bedroom. There were dirty clothes all jumbled up⁴ in a pile on the floor. I had to hang up⁵ four jackets and several pairs of trousers I'd left lying on chairs, and then I loaded up⁶ the washing machine. That took me an hour. Then I discovered the washbasin was clogged up⁷ in the bathroom, so I had to clear that. By that time I'd used up⁸ all my energy and I was too tired to do anything, so I just fell asleep on the sofa.

|---|---|
| 1 making a place tidy and clean, especially by putting things where they usually belong | 4 (adjective) mixed together in an untidy way (from the verb jumble up) |
| 2 remove rubbish or dirt, usually from the floor, using a brush | 5 hang something, especially clothes, on a hook |
| 3 make a room or a group of things tidy by putting things in the correct place | 6 to put a lot of things into a machine or vehicle |
| | 7 blocked |
| | 8 finished a supply of something |

Note how the particle up can be used for emphasis:

Eat up your vegetables! Drink up your juice! Seth's used up all the milk.

These three sentences could be written without up, but using up emphasises the meaning of 'finish it all or completely'.

Read this social media chat between Robert and Georgia.

-  Robert 17:02
Hi Georgia, what's new?
-  Georgia 17:03
My sister Eliza showed up¹ at last. She's been promising to come for weeks.
-  Robert 17:03
Great. 😊
-  Georgia 17:04
Yeah, she turned up² yesterday evening.
-  Robert 17:04
What's she doing these days?
-  Georgia 17:05
She's just opened up³ a restaurant serving exotic food from different countries. It's in that shopping mall in Dunston, you know.
-  Robert 17:06
Wow! That's original. It'll certainly liven up⁴ a bit – it's such a boring place. So, what's the set-up⁵? Is she the only person involved?
-  Georgia 17:07
No, she has a business partner and they divide up⁶ the work – and the profits!
-  Robert 17:08
Sounds like fun. 😊
-  Georgia 17:08
Yeah, but she says it's hard work. She spends half the day chopping up⁷ food and cleaning the kitchen.
-  Robert 17:09
Mm. Maybe we're better off working in office jobs ...

- 1 arrived, especially at a place where people were expecting her
- 2 arrived

- 1 Jamie is weighed down with luggage.
What do we know about Jamie's luggage?
- 2 She's trying to cut down on chocolate.
Does she still eat chocolate?
- 3 Alexander took down everything we said.
Did Alexander remember or write what was said?
- 4 The garage has shut down.
Has the garage shut for the evening?
- 5 They chopped down the bushes in front of their house.
Why might they have decided to do this?

17.2 Complete these newspaper headlines with the correct verbs from the box. Write the verbs in the correct form.

chop cut go hand keep shut

- 1 LOCAL CAFÉ DOWN BY HEALTH INSPECTORS
- 2 DOCTORS WARN TEENAGERS TO DOWN ON FAST FOOD
- 3 REBEL TROOPS OVER WEAPONS
- 4 TWENTY OAKS DOWN TO MAKE WAY FOR BYPASS
- 5 GOVERNMENT PROMISES TO DOWN INFLATION
- 6 MINISTERS TO OVER REPORT IN DETAIL TOMORROW

17.3 Answer these questions about phrasal verbs with down and over. Use a dictionary if necessary.

- 1 Which three phrasal verbs in the email on the opposite page are often used with through instead of over? Does using through instead of over change the meaning at all?
- 2 Can you see any meaning for over that connects the three verbs in the voicemail?
- 3 Match each of the phrasal verbs below with the correct general meaning of down from the table in A.
 - a) I need a holiday. Stress and overwork are wearing me down.
 - b) Let me take down your details.
 - c) A lot of fences blew down in the hurricane last night.

 - d) Don't put your glass of wine on the floor. Someone is sure to knock it over.
 - e) Make sure the milk does not boil over.

18 Around and about

Around and about are often interchangeable in phrasal verbs: both particles are equally possible with all the verbs in A below and with some of the verbs in B. Note also that round can sometimes replace around.

Phrasal verbs with around and about often express the idea of acting in a relaxed way, or without a particular purpose or without concentrating.

Most of the verbs in this unit are informal.

Spending time

phrasal verb	meaning	example
wait about/around	stay in one place without doing anything as you wait for something to happen	If you can wait around for about an hour, we should be able to tell you your results.
laze about/around	relax and enjoy yourself by doing very little	For the first week of our holiday we usually just laze about on the beach.
sit about/around (somewhere)	spend time sitting down and doing very little	Please let me help you. I don't like just sitting about all day.
hang about/around/round (somewhere) (informal)	spend time somewhere without doing very much	There are always a lot of rather suspicious-looking people hanging round outside that bar.
mess about/around	spend time playing or doing things with no particular purpose behave stupidly, waste time doing unimportant things	Tim spends his weekends messing around in the garage repairing things. The pupils were given extra homework for messing around in class.
mess sb about/around (informal)	treat someone badly or waste their time, e.g. by changing your mind or not doing what you promised	He's been messing her around for ages and just won't commit to the relationship.
lie about/around	spend time lying down doing very little	I hate the way she just lies around all day watching TV while I'm working.

Being in a place

Fans were milling about/around/round the hotel lobby hoping to see the film star and get her autograph. [walking around a particular place or area, usually while waiting for something]

Meanwhile photographers and journalists were standing about/around/round chatting to each other. [spending time standing in a place waiting for someone or doing very little]

Tyler Can you stick around this afternoon? [informal: stay somewhere for a period of time]
If so, I'll take you around/round the office and introduce you to the other account managers if you like. [visit a place with someone showing them the most interesting or important parts]

Anna No, it's all right, thanks. The boss has already shown me around/round. [gone with someone to a place that they have not visited before and shown them the interesting parts]

Exercises

18.1 Draw lines to match the verbs in the left-hand column with the best definitions in the right-hand column.

- 1 mess
- 2 hang
- 3 lie
- 4 sit
- 5 laze

about/(a)round

- lie down doing very little
- spend time sitting down and doing very little
- relax, enjoy yourself and do very little
- behave stupidly or waste time
- spend time somewhere not doing very much

18.2 Now use the verbs from exercise 18.1 to fill the gaps in these sentences. Write the verbs in the correct form and use each verb once only.

- 1 She just around on the sofa all day chatting to friends online.
I wish she'd get a job.
- 2 We could be round here for hours waiting for a taxi. Let's walk.
- 3 After the meeting we were just around chatting for a while.
- 4 My idea of a perfect weekend is just around at home with a good book.
- 5 I wish the kids would stop about.

18.3 Rewrite the underlined words in these sentences using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

- 1 Do you want to stay here after the meeting? I finish work at 5 p.m. and I could go with you and show you the most interesting places in the old town.
- 2 Nothing much happened at the demonstration. We just stood in one place not doing much and held our banners up.
- 3 They spend most weekends just doing things without much purpose in their boat; they don't really sail it seriously.
- 4 On my first day, the boss went with me through the workshop and introduced me to various people I'd be working with.
- 5 At the drinks party people were just wandering here and there hoping to find someone they knew.
- 6 Look, I'm sorry, I don't want to cause you problems and waste your time, but I wonder if we could postpone our meeting till next week?

18.4 Here are some other phrasal verbs with about/around. Read the sentences and try to explain in your own words what they mean. Use a dictionary if necessary.

- 1 I've got to go now but I'll see you around.
- 2 Don't order me about! I'm not your servant, you know.
- 3 My suitcase got a bit bashed about on the plane.
- 4 He told the kids to stop fooling around.
- 5 Assistant: Can I help you?
Customer: No thanks. I'm just looking around the gallery.

Note that with all the verbs in this unit the particles for and with must go before the object of the verb.

A

For

Each response in the dialogues below contains two phrasal verbs with for. Learning verbs in pairs associated with the same context can help you remember them.

Hannah I've been given the chance to apply for that new post in head office. What do you think?

Dylan I think you should go for it [try to get or achieve it]. We'll all be rooting for you [informal: showing support for you in a competition, or hoping that you will succeed].

Eleanor How's your new babysitter?

Julian We couldn't ask for a better babysitter [the new babysitter is the best of her kind]. She just lives for our kids and they just adore her [believes that the kids are the most important people in her life].

Zoë I saw you going into Victoria's flat with her this morning. Is anything wrong?

Leah Her washing machine had flooded the kitchen. She sent for a plumber and got it fixed but it left a terrible mess [send someone a message asking them to come to see you]. We had planned to go into town and I was calling for her on the way there, but in the end we stayed at home and tidied the mess in the kitchen [visiting her place in order to collect her].

Joey What does 'R' mean on that sign?

Finlay I think it stands for 'restaurant' [is the first letter of a word or name and is used to represent it]. Let's stop. You must be dying for something to eat [informal: be wanting something very much, especially food or drink].

B

With

phrasal verb	meaning	example
could do with sth/sb	need or want something or someone (informal)	I could do with a cup of coffee.
deal with sth	if something [e.g. a book, film, article] deals with a particular subject or idea, it is about that subject or idea	His latest book deals with the civil war of 1984–1989.
stick with it	continue doing something even though it is difficult (informal)	I know studying for a PhD is hard, but I think you should stick with it .
go with sth	if one thing goes with another, they suit each other or they look or taste good together	That shirt goes really well with your blue jacket.
put up with sb/sth	accept unpleasant behaviour or an unpleasant situation, even though you do not like it	I don't know how she puts up with her sister's bad temper.
catch up with sb	meet someone you know, after not seeing them for a period of time	I hope to catch up with Ava when I'm in Berlin. I haven't seen her for years.

Exercises

- 4 Fran I thought the film was great.
Millie Yes, I thought it the theme of love really sensitively.
- 5 Michael Let's meet for a coffee and a chat next week.
Darcy Yes, I can't wait to you.

19.4 Rewrite these sentences using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

- 1 I couldn't tolerate such noisy neighbours as yours.
- 2 It's been such a busy week. I can't wait for the weekend.
- 3 Evelyn's shoes match her handbag perfectly.
- 4 All the students at his university were hoping Austin would win the golf championship.
- 5 I have the best job you could imagine.
- 6 Her grandson is the most important person in Stella's life.

Through

Through in phrasal verbs gives an idea of going from one side of something to the other, or from the beginning to the end of something. Note that with most of these phrasal verbs through must go before the object of the verb.

If you sleep through a loud noise or activity, it does not wake you.

I'm sorry I'm late. I'm afraid I slept through my alarm.

If you live through something, you experience a difficult situation or event.

People who have lived through a war often have rather a different outlook on life.

If you flick through a magazine or book, you look briefly at its pages.

I usually flick through a magazine before buying it.

If you look through something, you read it quickly and not very carefully.

If you go through something, you carefully read or discuss it to make sure that it is correct.

I'll look through the report tonight and then we can go through it properly tomorrow.

If you take someone through something, you explain it or show them how to do it.

Don't worry – Jack will take you through the job before we leave you on your own.

If you see through a person who is trying to trick you, you realise what they are really like or what they are trying to do.

He is so charming that few people see through him and realise that he is just a conman.

Back in phrasal verbs or expressions usually conveys the idea of returning.

If you want to return something that has been delivered to you, e.g. by post, perhaps because it is the wrong size or is damaged, you send it back. If you go to the shop to exchange it in person, you take it back. Shops take back things they have sold you if you find they are not in good condition when you get home. If you buy goods in a shop with a debit card and ask for cashback (noun), the shop will give you cash from your bank account. If you call/phone/ring someone back, text someone back or email someone back, you are replying to a phone message, text message or e-mail from them. If emails bounce back, they didn't get to their destination and have been sent back. If you bounce back from something, you start to be successful again after a difficult period.

Note that with the verbs above, back can go before or after the object of the verb.

If someone, especially a child, answers (someone) back, they reply rudely to someone they should be polite to.

Mother Say thank you to Mrs Brown.

Child Say thank you yourself.

Mother Don't answer me back like that.

An interesting use of back is in the expression: We go back ten years. This is an informal way of saying: We have known each other for ten years.

If you bite back, you do something bad to someone because they did something bad to you. However, if you bite something back or bite back something, you stop yourself from saying something that shows your true feelings or thoughts.

When Emma is criticised, she doesn't hesitate to bite back.

When Callum asked me what I thought of his lime-green suit, I had to bite back my initial response.

Exercises

20.1 Write what you could say in these situations using phrasal verbs with through.

- 1 Your boss asks you to explain to a new member of staff how things are done in the office, step by step. What could you say to the new person?
- 2 A friend warns you that another person, Leo, is trying to trick you. Reassure the friend that you realised what Leo was really like the first moment you met him.
- 3 You arrive late for an important meeting. You set your alarm clock but didn't wake up when it rang. Apologise and explain what happened.
- 4 You have done some calculations at work, and there seems to be a mistake. Ask a colleague to read the figures carefully to see if they can see any mistakes.
- 5 A colleague offers to read in detail a 12-page report you have written. Tell them that that will not be necessary and that you'd be grateful if they just looked at it very briefly. (Give two possible answers.)
- 6 A friend asks you why a person you know always seems so sad. Explain that that person has experienced some terrible things over the last few years.

20.2 Complete these sentences using verbs or expressions from B.

- 1 This new jacket just doesn't look right on me; the colour is all wrong. If I it back to the shop, do you think they'd it back? I bought it over 30 days ago.
- 2 I had to back some angry words when they told me I had lost my job.
- 3 I bought this clock online, but it's not as nice as it looked on the computer screen. I think I'll it back.
- 4 I don't think he'll just accept his brother's insults. He's the sort of person who will back if he's attacked.
- 5 We're old friends. We back to the 1980s when we were at college together.
- 6 Kids nowadays seem to lack respect for their parents and won't hesitate to back.
- 7 I haven't got any cash. I'll get when we go to the supermarket.

- make a person or animal so frightened that they go away
- not go to a place

21.5 Can you see any basic meanings for into and away in the phrasal verbs in this unit that might help you learn them?

At work

Kate works as a nurse. When she starts work she has to clock on¹, and when she leaves she clocks off². If records show that she has worked an extra-long shift, then she is able to take time off³ at a later date. She was planning to take a holiday in July this year but has had to bring it forward⁴ as July is going to be a particularly busy time for her hospital this year. Kate loves her work, but her hospital is understaffed and she hates to always be pushed for⁵ time. She finds it almost impossible to fit in⁶ time to talk to the patients although she feels that is an important part of her job. She can chat for a few minutes but then she has to press on⁷ with her other duties. The hospital employs many nurses from overseas. When their work permits run out⁸ after three years, they have to reapply for a further work permit.

- 1 record the time she arrives at work (also clock in)
- 2 record the time she leaves work (also clock out)
- 3 spend time away from work
- 4 change the date or time of something so that it happens earlier than expected
- 5 not have enough of something, usually time or money
- 6 find time to do something or see someone
- 7 continue doing something in a determined way
- 8 come to an end (of the period of time of a document or agreement); more formal equivalent is expire

At leisure

When Kate does have spare time, she likes to relax. She usually hangs out/around/round¹ with friends she was at school with. They love whiling away² their days off together, going round the shops or just chatting at one of their homes. Sometimes they go away for a weekend and muck about³ at Kate's aunt's cottage in the countryside. Last time they did that, a colleague of Kate's latched on to⁴ them and went too. The others didn't really like her at first, especially as she always kept them hanging on⁵ while she got ready, but now they all like her very much.

- 1 spends a lot of time (informal)
- 2 spending time in a relaxed way, either because they are waiting for something or have nothing special to do
- 3 waste time doing silly things (informal)
- 4 spent time with them, especially when they did not want her with them
- 5 waiting, usually for a short time (informal)

Exercises

22.1 Complete these sentences with a verb from A.

- 1 I'm afraid I'm a bit for time today. Could you give me a lift?
- 2 Oh dear! My passport has out. I must renew it before our trip.
- 3 I usually on at 9 a.m. every day, but if my train is late it might be 9.15.
I off at 5 p.m., but sometimes I can finish a bit earlier on Fridays.
- 4 Mr Chan wants to the meeting forward to this week as he's busy all next week. I'm not sure if we can it in this week as we're very busy too.
- 5 If we on after lunch, we can probably finish the report by 5 p.m.
- 6 I'm going to some time off next month and go and stay with my parents.

22.2 Write an appropriate question to fit each answer.

Oh, I usually just hang out with friends, or sometimes I do some sport.
Well, he never studied; he just spent all his time mucking about, so it's no surprise.
No, she's not a friend. She just latched on to our group and followed us.
Oh, it's great for whiling away the time if you're waiting for a plane or a train.
Let's just hang on for five minutes. I want to speak to someone.

22.3 Correct the mistakes with the phrasal verbs in these sentences.

- 1 We had to wait an hour for the next train, so we went for a walk to while off the time.
- 2 A young French woman latched to me at the party last night. I think she wanted to practise her English.
- 3 I clock on work at 7.30 a.m. every morning.
- 4 We have to finish this job by six o'clock. We'd better press up with it.
- 5 I just don't know how we're going to fit three meetings on before the summer break.

Over to you

Write a description of how you spend your work and leisure time using as many of the phrasal verbs in this unit as you can.

A

The past

Charnbury Life HOME | EVENTS | MUSEUMS & GALLERIES | DINING

Journey into the past at the Charnbury Folk Museum

If you're young, come on a journey into the past before you were born. If you're a senior citizen, let us take you back¹ to your childhood. Think back² to what everyday life was like 50, 60, 100, 200 years ago, before computers, before TVs, before fridges and washing machines. Many of our exhibits date back³ to the early 19th century.

Is that old vacuum cleaner in your attic just a leftover⁴ from a bygone⁵ era, or is it a piece of industrial history? Come and find out.

📍 Address: Palmer Square, Charnbury ☎ Tel: 0211 4684536

- 1 make you remember a period or an event in the past
- 2 think about things that happened in the past
- 3 have existed since a particular time
- 4 (noun) something which exists from an earlier time
- 5 (adjective) from a time which does not exist any more

Leftover (noun) and bygone (adjective) are formed from the verbs be left over and go by.

We used some balloons that were left over from the Christmas party to decorate the house for her birthday. [still existed/were unused from an earlier time]

As time goes by you realise that your parents' advice was in your best interests. [passes]

Note that bygone also exists as a noun, but it is usually always in the plural bygones.

B

Time moving

I'm sorry to hold you up but you must sign these forms before you go in. [delay you]

If there are no hold-ups, we should arrive by about seven o'clock. [noun: delays]

Leo, can you hurry the kids up. The coach is about to leave. [make them act more quickly]

Mum walks so fast. It's quite hard to keep up with her. [go at the same speed as someone]

The meeting dragged on and everyone got irritable. [continued for too long]

I'm sorry I'm late. My French lesson ran on, so I didn't leave school till 4.30 p.m. [continued for longer than expected]

Three weeks passed by before I got a reply to my letter of complaint. [went past]

It's difficult to plan for the future. Nobody knows what lies ahead. [will happen in the future]

Tip

If a phrasal verb has a noun or adjective form associated with it, learn them together and record them together in your vocabulary notebook, e.g. leftover and be left over.

Exercises

23.1 Write the best phrasal verb expression from the options below to complete this text.

The film is a time travel adventure and I found it very entertaining, though my friend felt that it (1) a bit. At the beginning it (2) to the Iron Age where the hero is living an ordinary Iron-Age life. He eats a mysterious plant, however, and the years suddenly start (3) like minutes. Suddenly he is in the future and, as he is now a (4) from a (5) era, he finds it very hard to understand what is going on. This results in a number of amusing incidents. Although the plot is occasionally a little difficult to follow, I would certainly recommend it.

FIGHT TO SAVE VILLAGE HOME

Meanborough local council has decided to destroy a lovely old cottage with a beautiful rose garden in the village of Wareholt in order to widen the main road. However, the villagers are equally determined to fight back¹. The authorities want to evict an 82-year-old lady, Mary Jakes, who has lived all her life in the cottage. They are bending over backwards² to persuade her to go and live in a modern old people's home in the nearest town and have offered to move her at their cost.

Mary does not want to move and villagers are doing all they can to see her through³ her difficult time. Mary may seem old and harmless, but she has turned on⁴ several officers from the council who have tried to get her to change her mind. There was a recent setback⁵ for Mary when she was told that she couldn't stay in the cottage because repairs needed to be done to the roof. However, her neighbour, a builder, quickly saw to⁶ it and her roof is now in good repair, so she is still in the cottage and hopes to win her battle.

Managing subjects and topics

Sophia Brown is speaking to her colleagues at a weekly business meeting. She gives an outline of what she's going to say.

Well, there are a couple of matters which I want to bring up¹ today for discussion. But before we get on to² those questions, I just want to run through³ the schedule for next week's sales conference, which you all have copies of. Someone asked me if we could talk about the new computer system, but I'd prefer to leave that aside⁴ for today and come back to⁵ it another time. I'm sure I don't need to spell out⁶ how important it is that we're all thoroughly prepared for next week's conference, so maybe we can deal with⁷ that first. So, let's have a quick run-through⁸ of the schedule and discuss each event in turn.

² start talking about after discussing something else

³ repeat something, usually quickly, to make sure it is correct

⁴ not discuss it so that we can discuss something else

⁵ return to discuss it at a future time

⁶ explain in detail

⁷ discuss or give our attention to

⁸ noun: a practice or repetition to make sure something is correct (from the verb run through)

Note that some of the phrasal verbs above can have the object before or after the particle:

bring sth up or bring up sth leave sth aside or leave aside sth spell sth out or spell out sth

Communicating and interacting with others

In these dialogues the second speaker uses a phrasal verb to repeat the first speaker's meaning.

Jensen I wish they had done what they said they would do.

Nancy Yes, they should have kept to what they promised and not changed their minds.

Freddie I don't know who to ask for help or advice on this matter. It's very delicate.

Louis Yes, it's difficult to know who to turn to, isn't it?

Anna Lucy was extremely enthusiastic and excited about coming to work for us.

Flora Yes, she was absolutely bubbling over with excitement when I spoke to her.

Ellis She acts as if she was the boss, telling everyone what to do.

Mia Yes, she's always ordering people about/around.

Sienna I saw a sign saying that the car park will be closed tomorrow. Can you tell everybody else, please?

Ronnie Yes, I'll pass the news on. I'll send an email to everyone in the office.

Harry I see Grace said no to the job.

Zoë Yes, she turned the offer down.

*The object can also appear after the particle in these two phrasal verbs.

COMEDY AT THE LONDON ARTS CENTRE

The show was fully booked up¹ for weeks, and when it opened last night, the public poured in² and very soon the London Arts Centre was packed out³. But why? What had they come to see? Comedians who take off⁴ politicians and who could easily stand in⁵ for the real leaders who run our country. The show was put on⁶ by its creators to protest against the recent election and to send a message to the government about the result. The show was timed to tie in with⁷ National Democracy Week. It was a good idea, but the standard of the performances was third-rate and an embarrassing number of people simply walked out⁸ before it ended. There were some amusing moments when the performers sent up⁹ the Prime Minister, but overall it was a dismal show. Despite the large turnout¹⁰ for the show's first night, I doubt it will attract many people during the rest of its seven-day run.

- 1 if an event, person or place is booked up, there is no space or time available for someone
- 2 arrived or entered somewhere in very large numbers
- 3 (adjective) very full
- 4 copy the way a person or animal behaves, often in order to make people laugh

Hi Dexter.

You must go and see the show that the Students' Arts Club is (1) this week. It's brilliant and it (2) very well with the study of satire that we're doing at the moment in our literature lectures. We were lucky to get tickets as we'd been told that it (3), but we managed get the last two and to (4) the hall along with at least 2,000 other people. The actors were so good at (5) the bureaucracy in this college and Ben Hurley was brilliant at (6) the Dean. No-one (7) early - not even the Dean, who seemed to be enjoying himself as much as everyone else! It's been so popular that the play planned for next week has been (8) till next month so the Club can hold some extra performances.

Over to you

Choose five of the phrasal verbs from this unit and use them in sentences about situations you have been in recently.

A Referring to information in academic writing

This table shows phrasal verbs which are useful in academic writing.

phrasal verb	example	meaning
come under sth	be included in or may be found in	Sanderson (2008) studied mistakes involving prepositions, tenses and other items which come under the heading of grammatical errors in second language learning.
draw on/upon sth	use information or your knowledge or experience of something to help you do something	In designing the experiment, Freya Farr draws upon earlier studies done in America and Asia.
point out sth (often + that)	present a new fact, especially one that is important in the present discussion or situation	Willis (2011) points out that economic statistics often show a sharp rise just before a serious recession.
turn to sth/sb	begin to think, speak or write about a subject	I should now like to turn to another issue which is often neglected: parental control.

B Noticing and understanding information

In these conversations, the second person repeats what the first person says using a phrasal verb.

Zara I didn't fully understand what he was saying for a few minutes.

Ed Yes, it took me a few minutes to latch on to what he was talking about.

Rory I found it difficult to understand the full importance of the decision.

Amber Yes, me too. I found it hard to take in its significance at first.

Julia We must be careful to notice any difficulties that occur once we start the project.

Mason Yes, we'll have to watch out for possible problems.

Liam Could you try and get some information about how to contact George Phelps?

Ellie Yes, I'll try and find out his contact details.

Olivia Sofia, will you make sure that Ava has scanned those documents for me?

Sofia Yes, I'll check up on her right away and see if she's done them.

Dan Frankie, I can't find that market report we wrote about three years ago.

Frankie OK, I'll try and track it down. It must be on the system somewhere.

C Other verbs connected with information

Eliza What's the capital of Ecuador?

Blake Oh, I know it isn't Bogotá – that's the capital of Colombia and it isn't Caracas – that's the capital of Venezuela. Oh, I don't know. I give up. [stop trying to think of the answer to a joke or question]

Eliza It's Quito.

I said something that upset Ivy. I didn't mean to, it just slipped out. [I didn't intend to say it]
The total on the bill and the total on the credit card statement should match up, but don't [be the same]. There must be a mistake.

Book Review

Land Tracks by Michael C. Whitmore

Land Tracks is an unusual book about the history of our nation. The author has managed to (1) a number of previously unpublished sources. He has (2) these to argue that the current political situation in the land owes a great deal to the separate histories of the two main groups of people who make up our population. After analysing the historically suspicious relationship between these two groups, the author then (3) the relationship between our country and our neighbouring island. He (4) that traditionally the relationship between our two nations has always been based on trust and respect. The writer uses his imagination quite freely, and the book should really (5) the heading of fiction rather than non-fiction. It is a very interesting work, although anyone seriously wishing to investigate our history should (6) many of the facts presented by this author.

35.2 Correct the errors in this paragraph. There are seven in total. Each error is a matter of either an extra word or wrong word order.

Hannah and Ben were playing a game. Hannah had thought of a famous football player and Ben was trying to find who it was out. He turned his mother to but she pointed it out that she knew absolutely nothing about football. He would have to try to track the answer himself down and to watch out any clues for that Hannah might deliberately give. After ten minutes Ben still hadn't latched up on to who she was talking about, so he gave himself up and Hannah told him the answer.

35.3 Find three collocations for these verbs from the opposite page. Use a dictionary if necessary.

EXAMPLE Someone might watch out for problems , difficulties or danger

- 1 You might check up on , or
- 2 You might point out , or
- 3 Someone might find out , or
- 4 You might take in , or
- 5 , or might slip out.

35.4 Some of the phrasal verbs on the opposite page are used in a metaphorical rather than a literal way. In the sentences below these verbs are used in a literal way. What do they mean?

- 1 As they drove through the town, Martha's father pointed out anything he thought might interest the children.
- 2 In the scene at the end of the film, watch out for the man sitting in the café behind Leonardo DiCaprio – that's my brother!
- 3 The dog quickly tracked the rabbit down to where it was hiding under the garden shed.
- 4 Ethan managed to slip out of the house without anyone noticing.
- 5 Polly turned to the man on her left and started chatting to him about his work.

Talking about problems

Tom What's the matter? Why are you looking so worried?

Emily I've got a few problems at work and I don't know what to do about them.

Tom Well, why don't we talk them over¹ together? That might help you to sort yourself out².

Emily OK, thanks. Well, first of all, Julia was going to give a very important presentation tomorrow, but she says she's ill and isn't going to be able to do it. I think she's just bottled out³ as it's for such an important client. Feeling a bit ill was just the perfect let-out⁴ for her. I'd do it myself but I'm busy with meetings all day.

Tom Well, that calls for⁵ quick action if the presentation is tomorrow. You'd better do it yourself if it's so important. Just cancel your other meetings.

Emily I guess I'll have to. The next problem is that personal belongings have been going missing from people's desks during the day.

Tom Oh dear. You should deal with⁶ that problem as quickly as possible. Let's make a list of action points ...

- 1 discuss something before making a decision
- 2 spend time dealing with your personal problems
- 3 (informal) decided not to do something because she was afraid
- 4 (noun) excuse or way of avoiding doing something she said she'd do
- 5 needs or deserves a particular action or quality
- 6 take action to achieve something

Finding a solution

Now read what Emily did about her problems at work.

She faced up to¹ the fact that she would have to do the important presentation herself, so she immediately contacted her personal assistant to ask him to see about² postponing her meetings for the next day. As for the thefts, she realised that the solution to finding the office thief lay in³ working out exactly who could have been in the office when each of the thefts took place. So she came up with⁴ a plan that enabled her to check who had been there at each of the times concerned. That narrowed down⁵ the suspects to two people. She questioned them both and soon found out who had taken the belongings.

- 1 accepted that a difficult situation existed
- 2 deal with something or arrange for something to be done
- 3 would be found in (from the verb lie in something)
- 4 thought of or suggested something that might solve a problem
- 5 made something, usually a list or choice, smaller and clearer by removing what is irrelevant or less important

Exercises

36.1 Match the newspaper headlines 1–5 with the stories a–e below.

1 NEW POLICE SQUAD TO DEAL WITH ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS

2 Garcia bottles out of contest with Paterson

3 POLICE NARROW DOWN SUSPECTS IN MURDER CASE

4 Education Minister to talk over problem with teaching unions

5 GOVERNMENT SEEKS LET-OUT ON ELECTION PROMISE

- d) The fight was arranged for September in Las Vegas, but now it will not take place. A spokesman for the 28-year-old ...
- e) The minister said she would go into the discussions with an open mind, and that all the issues ...

36.2 A father is talking to his son who he thinks is very lazy. The underlined expressions have got mixed up. The particles are correct, but the verbs are incorrect. Put the correct verbs in.

It's time you faced yourself out. You're 27 now and you still haven't got a job! You've got to come up to reality. It's about time you realised that the secret of success talks in taking positive action. Over the next couple of days, I will expect you to lie up with a few ideas about how you're going to improve your situation. Why don't you go and sort about that job Uncle Robert offered you at his factory? I've offered to help deal things over with you, but you never seem to want my help. Yet you don't see with things yourself!

36.3 This is how Tom and Emily's conversation in A continued. What do you think the five underlined phrasal verbs mean?

Emily Well, it's just dawned on me that the thefts have always happened on the top floor. So it couldn't be anyone who never goes up there. That actually rules out quite a lot of people.

Tom Think some more about exactly where and when things were stolen and you'll probably find that the answer jumps out at you.

Emily Thanks, Tom. It's good to work through things with you! It really helps me to sort things out!

Over to you

Choose five of the phrasal verbs from this unit that you would particularly like to learn. Look them up in a good dictionary, for example go to the Cambridge University Press dictionary website at <http://dictionary.cambridge.org>, and copy out any useful example sentences that you find there.

A Thinking about things and deciding

My husband seems to be completely set against moving to the country. [be opposed to]

I could do without having my family coming to stay this weekend. I just want a quiet weekend. [informal: said when something is annoying you or causing problems for you because your situation at that time makes it difficult for you to deal with it]

Exercises

37.1 Complete this dialogue using verbs or particles from A.

Sarah Do you think you're going to take that job in New York, Isaac?

Isaac Well, I've been thinking it (1) and trying to (2) up all the positives and negatives, but I'm finding it really hard to come to a decision. I've run it (3) the family, but they all have different views. My younger child is really keen on the idea but the older one isn't. My wife says we have to think (4) and imagine how things would be for the kids when they're a bit older.

Sarah So how long do they give you to (5) through all the implications and come to a decision?

Isaac Unfortunately, I have to make up my mind by next week.

Sarah Well, why don't you (6) on it. Things might seem clearer in the morning.

37.2 Answer these questions about yourself using full sentences.

- 1 When you have an important decision to make in your personal or your professional life, who would you usually run it by first?
- 2 If you are worried about a situation at work, do you usually think it over immediately or decide to sleep on it first?
- 3 You have enough money for only one of these – a special holiday or a car. Which would you prefer to do without?
- 4 In what ways do people plan ahead for their retirement?
- 5 What sorts of things might people chicken out of doing?

37.3 Rewrite these sentences using the word in brackets so that the sentences keep the same meaning.

- 1 We should take into consideration the fact that he is still only young. (ALLOW)
- 2 I really can't help you as I have a lot of things to do today. (ON)
- 3 He wants to stop having art classes at school next year so he can do extra music. (OPT)
- 4 We didn't expect Max to turn up at the party with a lot of his friends. (BARGAIN)
- 5 My son is determined not to go to university. (SET)
- 6 I would really prefer it if we didn't have people coming for dinner this evening. (WITHOUT)

37.4 Correct the mistakes with the phrasal verbs in these sentences.

- 1 I was going to do the parachute jump, but I chickened off in the end.
- 2 I have on a lot of things this weekend.
- 3 In judging her work, you should really allow her inexperience for.
- 4 If we buy the flat, we'll have to make without holidays for a few years.
- 5 Let's run our plan through Sarah before we make our final decision.
- 6 I could make without having to go to a conference this weekend.
- 7 In deciding how much holiday money we need, we should allow the fact for that food is very expensive there.

Disagreement at work

There was an outcry¹ at work today because the boss announced that he wanted us all to take a pay cut. We had a union meeting at lunchtime, and we all agreed to stick together² and refuse to agree to his requests. Our union leader spoke out³ very clearly to our boss and to the local press this afternoon. We're sure that the boss will have to give in⁴ in the end. Although in some ways I'd rather stay out of⁵ it myself, I have no choice but to support my fellow union members.

- 1 (noun) public expression of anger and disapproval
- 2 support each other, especially in a difficult situation
- 3 publicly expressed an opinion, usually to oppose or criticise something or someone
- 4 finally agree to what someone wants after a period of refusing to agree
- 5 not become involved in an argument or discussion

B

Private disagreements

Read Grace's email to an advice column.

Dear Eva,

Please can you help me. My big sister and I always used to be good friends, but we fell out¹ when I started going out with a new boyfriend. Now she is always trying to put me down² and it is really beginning to get to³ me. My boyfriend usually tries to stick up for⁴ me, but then she just laughs at him too. Four years ago my boyfriend went out with my sister for a few months, but surely she doesn't hold this against⁵ us? What can we do?

Grace

- 1 argued with each other and stopped being friends
- 2 make me feel stupid or unimportant by criticising me
- 3 make me feel upset or angry
- 4 defend me when I am being criticised
- 5 like or respect them less because they have done something wrong or something that she does not like

Back

The verb back is often used to refer to the position you take in an argument or decision.

Examples:

When I make my point at the meeting, please back me up.

The government backed down on its controversial plans to increase income tax.

Lottie had agreed to come sailing with us tomorrow, but she's backed out.

Exercises

38.1 In this radio interview a protester is angry about a plan to build a new road through some beautiful woodland. Complete the interview using verbs from the opposite page.

Reporter	Now, Mr Humfry, you have (1) out recently against the new road plan. Do you think your protest campaign can change the decision?
Protester	Well, there are a number of different groups opposed to this plan, and if we (2) together we can force the authorities to rethink.
Reporter	But do you really think the authorities will be prepared to (3) down over this? The minister has said the road plan must go ahead.
Protester	This isn't a small protest. There's been a massive public (4). People are not willing to see their environment destroyed by road building. The Highways Department must listen to us or face the consequences.
Reporter	The consequences? Do you mean violent protest as with the Knox Bridge?
Protester	Not violent protest, no. We have always emphasised to our members that if violence erupts they should (5) out of it and keep our protest peaceful. We condemn violence. No, I'm talking about a huge, non-violent wave of protest.
Reporter	And you think that, in this way, the government will be forced to (6) in?
Protester	Yes, I believe they will simply have to listen.

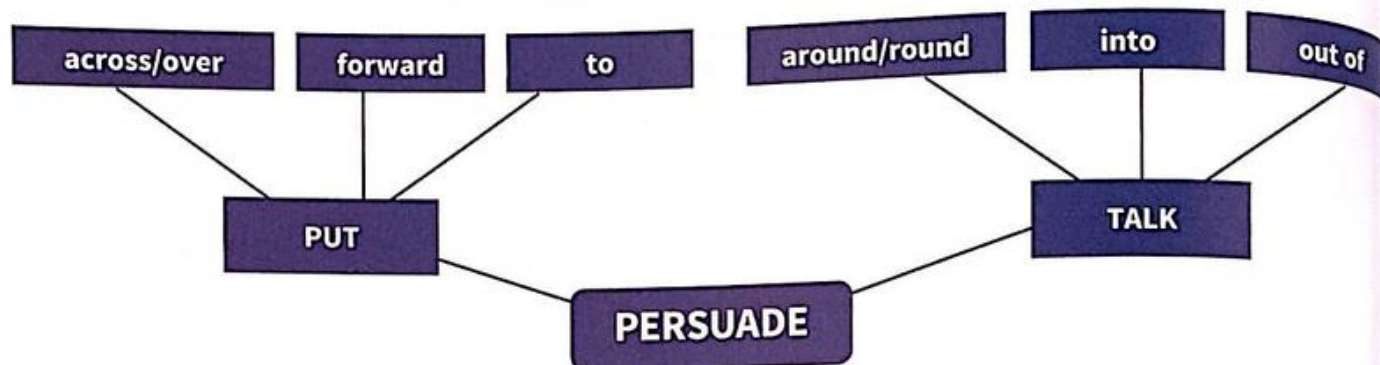

38.2 Use a phrasal verb from the opposite page to complete these dialogues so that Speaker B agrees with Speaker A's statement.

Commands and warnings

example	comment
Watch out! / Mind out! / Look out! There's a car coming!	said to tell someone to be careful so that they can avoid danger or an accident
Go on! / Hurry up! We've not got all day!	said to encourage someone to do something or to tell someone to do something more quickly
You're doing very well! Keep it up!	said to encourage someone to continue to do something, especially to continue to work hard or well
Hold on. I'll get Mike for you. It's best if you speak to him.	said to ask someone to wait a moment

Tip

Many of the exclamations here are very direct and may be considered impolite if you say them to someone you don't know very well. Learn them so that you understand them when you hear or read them, but use them only with very great care.

Exercises

41.1 Divide the exclamations and warnings on the opposite page into these groups:

- those that you could use to your boss or teacher
- those that you could use only to close friends

41.2 Choose the best response from those in the box to fit each of these dialogues.

Come off it! Lighten up! Steady on! Mind out!
Hold on! Come on! Spit it out! Keep it up!

- Nicholas I'm sorry, I just haven't had time to finish my essay. It's taken me ages to get hold of the books I needed for it.

Teacher There are plenty of copies in the library. And you could have told me sooner if you had really been having problems.
- Amelia Can I speak to your sister, please?

Matt I'll just go and see if she's home yet.
- Elliot What's the matter with you?

Millie There's something I've got to tell you but, well, I don't know where to begin.

Elliot I haven't got all day.
- Bella I'm never going to get all this work done. I hate my job.

Naomi It won't take long if you hurry up a bit.
- Anna Look at the picture on the side of that lorry!

Tom You're going to hit the car in front of you!
- Aisha That was a stupid thing to do. You're fired!

Harvey You know I'm one of your best workers.
- Archie Now I've been in the office for a month, I'd like to know if you are pleased with my work. How am I doing?

Rob Very well! You'll soon be getting a promotion.

41.3 Answer the following questions.

- Which exclamation on the opposite page is connected with the idea of shooting a gun?
- Which exclamation is connected with the idea of forcing out the liquid in your mouth?

41.4 Divide the exclamations from the box below into pairs that have approximately the same meaning. What is the basic meaning for each pair? Describe a situation when each pair of expressions might be used.

Watch out! Hold on! Mind out! Hurry up! Go on! Hang on!

A Things the teacher says

With all the verbs in these examples, the particle can go either before or after the object, e.g. give in your homework or give your homework in.

The teacher says ...

Hand/Turn in your worksheets at the end of the lesson, please.

Rose, give/hand out these worksheets, please.

Jon, clean off / rub out / wipe off what's written on the board, please.

Work out the answers without using a calculator.

Cross out any rough work when you have found the answer.

Take care not to miss out any of the exam questions.

Take turns to act out your dialogues in groups of four.

Please put your books away.

The teacher wants:

... the students to give her their work at the end of the lesson.

... Rose to give each student a worksheet*.

... Jon to clean the board.

... the students to do some maths without using calculators.

... the students to put a line through any rough work.

... the students not to forget to answer any of the exam questions.

... the students to perform the actions and say the words of their dialogues.

... the students to store their books where they are usually stored.

*Sheets of paper that everyone in a class or lecture receives a copy of are called handouts. These might be worksheets (i.e. have exercises on them) or they might contain a text or some reference material.

B Other classroom phrasal verbs

Charlotte was ill for a month and so she fell behind with her schoolwork [failed to do her schoolwork by a particular time]. She is going to find it difficult to catch up [reach the same standard as the rest of the class].

Pupils often play up when a teacher is new or inexperienced. [behave badly]

Although Isabelle had done good work throughout the year she messed up her exam. [did her exam badly]

The teacher cleared the books from the table and spread out the map. [opened out something that was folded]

Tip

Listen carefully to instructions in English from your teacher and note down any phrasal verbs they use. If you are not sure what they mean, ask them for an explanation.

Exercises

42.1 Look at these pictures and write a sentence to describe what the student is doing in each case.

42.2 Would Tim's parents be pleased or not if their son's teacher told them the following?

- 1 Tim was playing up in class last week.
- 2 Tim messed up his homework.
- 3 Tim has been helping a classmate who has fallen behind.
- 4 Tim has caught up with the rest of the class.
- 5 Tim didn't hand in his homework.
- 6 Tim missed out some important stages in his work.

42.3 Complete this story using appropriate phrasal verbs from the opposite page. Write the verbs in the correct tense.

Last term Alexa missed three weeks of school and so she (1) with her studies. She did all she could to try to (2) with the other students, but she couldn't manage it. When it came to the maths test at the end of term, she just couldn't (3) the answers. She spent all her time on half of the question paper and (4) the other half, so inevitably she failed. Because she had (5) the test, her parents decided she'd better have a maths tutor over the holidays. In this week's test she came top of the class.

42.4 Rewrite these sentences using more informal phrasal verbs instead of the underlined verbs.

- 1 At the end of the lesson we have to store our books in our bags.
- 2 Students often misbehave when they are bored in class.
- 3 The teacher erased the new words from the board and then tested us.
- 4 We have to submit our registration forms for the exam on Friday.
- 5 I usually omit my middle name when I am filling in forms.
- 6 Some people were distributing leaflets about a demonstration in the town centre.
- 7 My partner and I had to perform our dialogue in front of the whole class.

42.5 Answer these questions using full sentences.

- 1 Why are you often asked to cross out rough work in an exam?
- 2 If a teacher gives out a sheet listing all the kings and queens of Britain, is that a worksheet or a handout or both?
- 3 Why do most students carry an eraser in their pencil cases?
- 4 How easy would it be for you to work out how many euros are equal to 250 US dollars?
- 5 What do you think is the reason for pupils playing up in class?

Enrolling on courses

Look at this information leaflet for students at Welney College. Then look at how David explains the system informally to a friend using phrasal verbs. The numbers (1, 2, etc.) help you to match the phrasal verbs with their meanings.

Welney College

Promoting excellence

- Autumn term ends¹ on 18 December.
Spring term begins² on 8 January.
- Students wishing to register for³ spring term courses should do so before 12 December.
- Any student not completing a course⁴ will not receive credits for that course.
- Course essays must be submitted in a final form⁵ seven days before the end of a course.
- Students failing more than 30% of their total coursework will be expelled⁶ from the college.

A. Ashworth, Academic Administrator

David:

- We break up¹ on 18 December and go back² on 8 January, so we've got about a three-week break.
- But we've got to sign up³ for courses for next term before 12 December.
- You have to go to all the lectures; if you drop out⁴ before the end, you don't get the credits.
- And you have to write up⁵ your course essay and submit it a week before the course ends.
- If you fail 30% or more of your courses, they throw you out⁶ of the college.

Before an exam

How to... take tests

Six tips for exam success

- Keep up¹ all the skills you need for the exam so that you don't have to do a lot of work at the last minute.
- Brush up on² some of the things you learnt a long time ago; they may possibly come up³ in the exam.
- Don't just mug up⁴ on the key points you need for the exam and hope that you'll scrape through⁵ with little effort.
- On the other hand, don't try to do everything. Swotting up⁶ on everything you have done all term means you will have to revise a lot of useless things too.
- Concentrate on polishing up⁷ the most important areas and your best skills.
- Don't fool yourself that you'll pass the exam on the basis of what you've picked up⁸ during the lectures and classes. You will need to revise!

¹ continue to do something

² practise and improve your skills or your knowledge of something, usually something you learned in the past but have partly forgotten

³ if a question or a subject comes up in an exam, that question is asked or questions about that subject are asked in the exam

⁴ (informal) quickly try to learn the main facts about a subject, especially before an exam (often + on)

⁵ manage, with a lot of difficulty, to succeed in something

⁶ (informal) learning as much as you can about something, especially before an exam (often + on)

⁷ practising and improving your skills or your knowledge of something

⁸ learnt by absorbing it rather than studying it

Exercises

43.1 Rewrite these sentences using the words in brackets so that they keep the same meaning.

- 1 I'm going to register for a course in statistics next year. (SIGN)
- 2 Several students did not complete the Moral Philosophy course. (DROP)
- 3 Our course finishes on 20 June. (BREAK)
- 4 He was forced to leave university after one term. He'd done no work at all. (THROW)
- 5 I can't come out tonight. I have to have my essay finished for tomorrow. (WRITE)
- 6 My next term at college starts on 12 September. (GO)

breaking up dropping out being thrown out scraping through mugging up swotting up

43.3 Choose the best phrasal verb from the opposite page to complete this email.

Reply Forward

Dear Auntie Megan,

At last my first year exams are over. It's such a relief. I feel as if I've done nothing but (1) for them for ages. Although I'd (2) with work quite well during the year, I still needed to (3) everything that we had covered, of course. Fortunately, everything that I hoped would (4) in the exam paper did. So I hope I've done OK and haven't just (5). Now all I have to do is (6) one course assignment, which I need to hand in by the end of term.

We don't (7) till the end of the month and so I won't be home till then. We don't (8) until the end of September, so it'll be a lovely long break. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Love,
Kelly

43.4 Correct the ten phrasal verb mistakes in this paragraph. Either the wrong particles or the wrong verbs have been used.

Alfie hardly worked up at all for his exams. He brushed over on the history of the French Revolution, but no questions on the French Revolution got up in the exam. He was afraid that he would be thrown off university for failing his exams. However, he did just manage to scratch through them and so he will be in college when we return back next term. He has promised to try to keep through with work next year as he is planning to sign in for a couple of quite difficult courses, including business studies. He'll have to polish over his French because the business studies course involves spending a term in France working in a business. He thinks he can just lift up the language when he gets there, but I think he should study it before he goes because he only has school French.

Over to you

Go to the Mini dictionary at the end of this book and find more phrasal verbs with break. Is there a common theme in their meaning? If so, what is it?

A

Reading

Now, your homework for the weekend. Can you all please read up on¹ air pollution for next week. You'll find a good chapter in your textbook on page 40, but you don't need to read it all – just dip into² it. Now please turn over³ the worksheet on your desk. Nancy, will you please read out⁴ the paragraph at the top of the sheet?

- ¹ read a lot about a particular subject in order to learn about it
² read small parts of a book or magazine

- ³ turn a page so that you can see the other side
⁴ read aloud

Improving a piece of writing

Dad

Your essay's good, but I think it would be better if you cut out¹ this paragraph here. Also it'd be a good idea to add a paragraph summing up² your main points at the end. This paragraph here is a bit strong – why not tone it down³ a bit? And your point about crime crops up⁴ in several places – why not deal with it in just one paragraph? And you only touch on⁵ the issue of government control. Surely that deserves a bit more space? In fact I really think you should try to set your whole argument out⁶ better!

Daughter Why don't you just write it then, Dad!

- ¹ removed
² describing briefly the most important points
³ make it less critical or offensive
⁴ appears

- ⁵ mention briefly (also touch upon)
⁶ give all the details or explain clearly, especially in writing

Exercises

44.1 Match the verbs on the left with an object from the right. There may be more than one answer.

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| 1 scribble down | a) a subject |
| 2 fill in/out | b) a book or an article |
| 3 jot down | c) the page |
| 4 note down | d) a rough draft of an essay |
| 5 write out | e) the times of the trains to London |
| 6 read up on | f) the answer you have written |
| 7 dip into | g) a form or a questionnaire |
| 8 read out | h) a few very quick notes |
| 9 turn over | i) someone's phone number on a piece of paper |

44.2 Use the phrasal verbs from exercise 44.1 to complete these sentences. Write the verbs in the correct form. There may be more than one possible answer.

- I get nervous when I have to what I've written in class.
- I haven't read the book in detail. I just it.
- The witness managed to quickly the registration number of the car before it drove away at high speed.
- I've made some notes for my speech; now I'm going to in full.
- There are three forms to for this visa application.
- We should the departure times for flights to Rio de Janeiro.
- I'll have to international law for the exam.
- Now and let's see what's on the next page.
- Hang on, I'll just your address in case I forget it.

44.3 Look at this student essay and the teacher's comments in the margin. Then complete what the teacher might say to the student using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Delete this sentence. You only mention this very briefly, but it's an important issue. This is too strong! This point has already appeared once in your essay. Summary needed! 	The problems of pollution in the world cannot be solved overnight, since smoke from factories is a necessary evil, and cars and planes will always be noisy. Cleaning the environment is expensive. Large passenger aircraft make more pollution and noise than other planes. ① People's health is affected. ② Governments are completely stupid on questions of the environment. ③ It is very expensive to improve the environment. ④ ..... ⑤

Teacher I've put a line through this sentence; you should (1). And you only (2) the question of health; you should have written more. Also you should (3) what you say about governments; it's too strong. Then this last point has already (4) once; you don't need to repeat it. And finally, the essay ends too suddenly. You should (5) your arguments.

A

Talking informally about your work or career

Well, to get ahead¹ in a job like mine you have to be prepared to take on² a lot of responsibility and work long hours.

When the boss first took me on³, he filled me in⁴ on what the job involved, but he didn't tell me I would have to do so much travelling!

Well, I stood down⁵ as chairman in 2015, and Martha Wilmott took over⁶. As you all know, she has carried out⁷ some important reforms in the company and has been very successful.

I'm 60 now, so I think it's time for me to step down⁸ and hand over⁹ to a younger person.

- 1 be successful in a job
- 2 accept a particular job or responsibility
- 3 began to employ me
- 4 gave me the information I needed in order to do something
- 5 left an important job or official position so that someone else can do it instead
- 6 started doing a job or being responsible for something that someone else was doing or was responsible for before you
- 7 done or completed something, especially something important
- 8 leave your job, especially so that someone else can do it
- 9 give someone else responsibility or control

More work-related phrasal verbs

- Ellen Nicole, do you think you could fix up a staff meeting for me? [provide or arrange something for someone]
- Nicole Yes, I'll do that. When were you thinking of?
- Ellen Well, let's pencil it in for Friday morning and see whether everyone else is free then. [arrange for something to happen on a particular date, knowing the arrangement might be changed later]
- William Why are you back home already? Did you knock off early today? [informal: stop working, usually at the end of a day]
- Callum I wish I could say that. The truth is I've just been laid off. [lost your job because there is no work for you to do; from the verb lay off someone or lay someone off]
- William Oh, I'm sorry to hear that.
- Abigail Did you ever follow up that phone call you had with the oil company? [do something in order to make the effect of an earlier action or thing stronger or more certain]
- Michael No, I really should do something about it.
- Maisie It's amazing how much we can get done when we all pull together, isn't it? [work as a group in order to achieve something]
- Nathan Yes, although sometimes it's also good if people just leave you to it. [informal: go away from someone so that they do something by themselves or so they can continue what they are doing]

Exercises

45.1 Write down phrasal verbs from the opposite page which are:

- a) connected with finishing work (four answers)
- b) connected with making arrangements (two answers)

45.2 Complete this text using verbs or particles from the opposite page.

Eloise has been (1) on more and more responsibility at work. She was only taken (2) two years ago, but she has already managed to (3) out a very successful reorganisation of office procedures. Her boss just (4) her to it, and Eloise then filled him (5) when she had arranged everything. She has always been very good at getting people to (6) together and at motivating them. She's someone who will really get (7) and make a successful career. In fact I'm sure that when the boss eventually (8) down, he'll (9) over the running of the company to her. He can be sure it will be in safe hands!

45.3 Write suitable answers to the questions below using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

- 1 Shall I tell you what's been going on while you were on holiday?
Yes, please
- 2 Could you deal with the enquiries we've had in response to our advert?
Certainly, I'll
- 3 Could you arrange an appointment for me with the bank manager?
Yes, I'll
- 4 Why did you stand down as Director?
Well, I've been doing it for years and I thought it was time to
- 5 Can we arrange a meeting for some time next week?

- 1 What kind of tasks do you have to carry out each day?
- 2 At what time do you knock off each day?
- 3 Do you know anyone who has ever been laid off?
- 4 What qualities do you think you need to get ahead in the job that you do?
- 5 What did you do to get taken on for the job that you now have?

Being busy

Nikki I haven't seen you for ages. Have you been a bit tied up¹ at work?

Tim Yes, I've been incredibly busy. I was away for a conference and the work just piled up² while I was away. I've been snowed under³ ever since. Although I slave away⁴ till seven at night and even work at weekends, I still can't seem to catch up with⁵ everything!

Nikki Sorry I asked!

¹ been so busy that you are unable to see or speak to anyone else or go anywhere (informal)

² became more and more (used of something unpleasant, e.g. work, bills or debts)

³ had so much work to do that I have problems dealing with it

⁴ work very hard with little or no rest

⁵ do something you did not have time to do earlier

B

Working hard

Ellis How are things going for you at work at the moment, Stella?

Stella Well, we're branching out¹ into a new product line – children's clothes – so I'm pretty busy. At the moment I'm working on² some new designs for leisurewear. We're working towards³ having a complete range for children of all ages. It's quite difficult but I'm sure I'll develop some good designs if I keep at⁴ it.

Ellis Well, you always were good at sticking at⁵ things.

Stella Well, I'd certainly rather do a project myself than have to chase up⁶ other people to make sure they're doing what they promised to do. But sometimes you have to do that just to keep things moving along⁷.

Ellis Do you think you could squeeze in⁸ lunch with me sometime?

Stella Mm, possibly, but not till next week.

Ellis That's fine. But don't try to wriggle out of⁹ it at the last minute!

¹ starting to do something different from what you usually do

³ trying hard to achieve

⁴ continue working hard at something difficult or something which takes a long time

⁵ continuing to work hard at something even though it is hard or takes a long time

⁶ ask people to do something that they said they would do but have not done yet

⁷ developing in a satisfactory way

⁸ manage to see someone or do something when you are very busy and do not have much time available

⁹ avoid doing something that other people think you should do, often in a dishonest way (informal)

Tip

When phrasal verbs have very strong visual images associated with the verbs they are made from, for example, squeeze in, stick at and wriggle out, try to picture the meaning of the verb alone to help you remember the meaning of the verb and particle together.

Mr Benbow stuck at his job in the glue factory for 25 years before retiring.

46.2 Use the phrasal verbs from exercise 46.1 to rewrite these sentences. Use each phrasal verb once only.

- 1 I've been trying to get up to date with all the work I couldn't do when I was ill.
- 2 Sorry, I was incredibly busy all last week, so I couldn't go to any of the meetings.
- 3 Paperwork has just increased and increased recently. I don't know where to start.
- 4 I'm sorry I can't do the report this week. I'm just so incredibly busy.

46.3 Complete these sentences using the correct particles.

- 1 I've been working all day this essay and I still haven't finished it.
- 2 Whenever there's a difficult task to do she always tries to wriggle it.
- 3 Why should we slave till we're 65 and get nothing but a small pension?
- 4 Could we squeeze a quick meeting before lunch?
- 5 I must catch the housework before my visitors arrive this weekend.

46.4 Each line of the text below contains one mistake with a phrasal verb. Cross out the incorrect word and write the correct word in the box next to that line.

I need to chase ~~out~~ Austin's report so that we can keep things moving away with the European sales campaign. I know he's been working in it and I know he's been working upwards the same goals as all of us to branch up into new markets in Europe, but he's not good at sticking for things and you need to keep in it with campaigns like this one.

Conversations on the phone or the Internet

Client Can I speak to Mr Jones, please?

Assistant I'm afraid Mr Jones is in a meeting.

Client OK, I'll call back¹ later.

Client Could you put me through² to Anabelle Parker, please?

Assistant May I ask who's calling?

Client It's David Brown. We were talking a few minutes ago but got cut off³.

Sarah It's a very bad line, isn't it?

Paul Yes, it is. Why don't we end the call and I'll try calling you again?

Sarah Do you think people could be listening in⁴ on our conversation?

Paul I don't think we can assume that any phone or Internet call is completely private.

¹ call someone for the second time, or call someone who rang you earlier

² connect a phone or Internet caller to the person they want to speak to

⁴ secretly listening to a conversation

Conversations about calling

Alex Have you found out about costs for repairing the central heating yet?

Megan No, I called around a couple of companies. [called several people, often in order to find out information]. None of them have got back to me yet with a definite figure. [talked to someone, usually to give them information that you were not able to give them before]

Alex Well, if they don't call back [call someone who rang you earlier] soon, you'd better try calling up [calling] a few more places.

Luigi Do you find it hard to get through to your parents in Tonga? [manage to talk to someone on the phone or on the Internet]

Marie Not usually. If I call on the phone, my mum talks to me and then puts my dad on [give someone the telephone so that they can speak to the person who is on it], and he then puts me on speakerphone [turn on a loudspeaker on the phone so that everyone can hear the caller] so that I can talk to all my brothers and sisters. I can never get them to hang up [end a phone call, suddenly] and I don't want to ring off [end a phone call] either. If I call them on the Internet, it's great to be able to see all the family and talk to them at the same time, but the connection often isn't very good.

Frank I don't feel very well today. I've got a terrible headache.

Scarlett Oh dear. You'd better call in sick then. [call someone at your place of work to explain why you are not there]

Tip

You can use phone or ring instead of call if you are using the phone rather than the Internet, e.g. ring back, phone around, ring up, phone in.

There's obviously something you need to tell me that is making you very angry, so don't bottle up¹ your emotions. If you do, there is a danger that you will tear yourself apart².

- 1 not allow yourself to show or talk about your feelings, especially feelings of anger and sadness (informal)
- 2 make yourself feel very unhappy

Reply Forward

I understand that the email has made you extremely angry, but don't get carried away³; proceed carefully. At work things are going to get better, and you should jump at⁴ the chance of the new challenge which I know you will soon be offered.

- 3 become so excited about something that you do not control what you say or do and you forget about everything else
- 4 eagerly accept a chance to do or have something

Reply Forward

You may be unwilling at first to take part in the activity holiday Kian has suggested, but talk about it with him and the other friends he's invited, and you may warm to⁵ it a bit more. In fact, the idea could soon grow on⁶ you and you'll find yourself doing something you never expected to do and taking to⁷ it enthusiastically.

- 5 become more enthusiastic about an idea
- 6 you like something more and more, although you did not like it at first (informal)
- 7 starting to like it

Reply Forward

I can see that you feel for⁸ Poppy, but be careful. She seems to have lots of problems and hang-ups⁹, and you could soon become more involved than you want to. She will have to pull herself together¹⁰ sooner or later; it's her life, not yours.

- 8 feel sorry for someone who is unhappy or in a difficult situation
- 9 feelings of embarrassment or fear about something, often when it is not necessary to feel that way (informal)
- 10 become calm after being very upset or angry

A Talking about relationships

ask Eva

I've been going out with¹ my boyfriend for ten months now and we're planning to get married next year. But last week we fell out² over something really stupid. He heard a male friend of mine tell me my hair looked nice and he thought it was a chat-up³ line. He got so jealous and wouldn't speak to me. Do you think a minor falling-out⁴ like this is a bad sign for our future marriage, or am I worrying too much?

Faye

I think I've fallen for¹ the new guy who's just started work in our office. He fitted in² at once. He and I get along³ really well, but he hasn't asked me out⁴ yet. What should I do?

Florence

with Dr. Eva Fernandez

- 1 having a romantic relationship with
- 2 had an argument that damaged our relationship
- 3 (noun, informal) a way of talking which suggests you are attracted to someone and want them to be attracted to you (from the verb chat up)
- 4 (noun) argument (from the verb fall out)

- 1 (informal) become very attracted to
- 2 felt happy in a group of people because he was similar to them
- 3 like each other and are friendly
- 4 invited someone to go to a place like a cinema or a restaurant, usually to start a romantic relationship

B Being attracted to someone

If you ...	then you ...
hit it off with someone	immediately like and become friendly with them (informal) pair off with someone	start a romantic relationship with them chat someone up	talk in a way that shows them that you are attracted to them and you try to make them attracted to you go for a particular type of person or thing	like that type of person or thing

Tip

There are a lot of phrasal verbs which deal with relationships and how people get on with each other. Look occasionally at advice columns in a newspaper or magazine or online and note down any new ones that you find.

Exercises

52.1 Read the reply to Faye's letter and two other replies from the advice column. Fill the gaps.

Faye,

You say you're worried because you and your fiancé have (1) out. Well, take my advice, a temporary (2) with someone you love is not the end of the world. And your boyfriend shouldn't worry even if another man does try a (3) up line with you; if you love each other, such silly things will never threaten your marriage.

Pippa,

I get many letters from people in your situation. It can be hard when it feels like all your friends have (4) with boyfriends or girlfriends, and you're the only one who's still single. My advice to you is to stop worrying about the best way to (5) people at parties, and try to relax! Why not start a new class or join a club for a hobby you enjoy? That way you are more likely to meet the kind of guys you really (6), and you never know what will happen next!

Connor,

You say you think you've (7) for the new student on your course, but that you're afraid she won't (8) in with your gang of friends. I suggest you (9) her out and then meet up with your friends later in the evening. If they don't (10), then the choice is simple: either you lose her and keep your friends, or you keep her and perhaps lose 'friends' who aren't really true friends.

52.2 Correct the mistakes with the phrasal verbs in these sentences.

- 1 My friend and I fell away last week because she thinks I'm in love with her boyfriend.
- 2 The new student was finding it difficult to fit on, as he was older than the other students.
- 3 When George met his new colleague, he really fell to her and now he talks about her all the time.
- 4 Ethan and David hit it of immediately when they were introduced.
- 5 That girl over there was trying to talk me up.

52.3 Rewrite the underlined parts of this dialogue using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

Annie So what did you think of the film?

Jade It was so romantic! I loved it, especially at the end where Chris finally invited Lara to go out.

Annie That was sweet. But I didn't like it when Julie and Raul started a romantic relationship. She said at the beginning that she didn't normally like men who spend a lot of time at the gym. So it wasn't very realistic when she immediately became very attracted to him.

Jade But it was because they enjoyed a very friendly relationship online first. She didn't know what he looked like! And then he adapted well to her group of friends, which always helps.

Annie Yes, I suppose so. But my favourite storyline was Lena and Seth. The ones who were having a romantic relationship at the start but then had a big argument. It was so funny when he started talking to her to try to attract her at the carnival and she didn't know it was him – until he took off the lion costume!

Jade Ha ha! Yes, that was definitely the funniest bit.

Read these letters from the advice column and the replies on the right.

I'm 19 and my boyfriend and I have just split up¹ after a year together. For the first six months everything was great, but then we just seemed to drift apart². I didn't really want to finish with³ him, but he decided to break off⁴ our relationship. Should I ask him if we can start again and try to rediscover the magic of those first six months?

Nina

My parents broke up¹ last year and I've been depressed ever since. I see each of them regularly, and I love them, but I feel they have let me down². Is there anything I can do to persuade them to make up³ and live together again so that my sister and I can have a normal life like other kids?

Aidan

A couple of years ago my uncle ran off with¹ another woman. She was much younger than him, in fact she was only 20 and he was 52. It ended in disaster. He left her last year and returned to his wife. But the neighbours all stare at him and laugh at him; it seems he'll never live it down². He's doing his best to settle down³ and be a good husband and uncle again, but I feel so unhappy for him. What can I do?

Elena

When two people grow apart⁵, it's usually because they are basically different. The fact that he broke off with⁶ you means he recognises that you don't really have a lot in common. You're young. Let him go!

- 1 ended a relationship or marriage
- 2 gradually become less friendly and the relationship ends
- 3 end a romantic relationship (informal)
- 4 end a relationship
- 5 gradually become less friendly, often because you do not have the same interests and opinions any more
- 6 ended a romantic relationship with someone

Aidan, a marriage break-up⁴ is always very sad, but there's not much you can do. They are adults and they have made their own choices. You feel you're missing out⁵ on a normal young person's life, but you're not alone. A third of all marriages in Britain end in divorce. Be brave and talk to your friends about it.

- 1 their marriage or relationship ended
- 2 disappointed me by failing to do what they agreed or what I expected them to do
- 3 forgive each other and become friendly again
- 4 (noun) the act or event of breaking up
- 5 not doing or getting something you would enjoy or that would be good for you, or not having something other people have

People can be very cruel, Elena, and your uncle may have to settle for⁴ a lot more embarrassment before the neighbours forget what happened. The best thing you can do is to show your uncle that you love him and support him and show him that you accept him, and all his faults.

- 1 secretly left a place with someone in order to live with them or marry them, especially when other people think this is wrong
- 2 stop feeling embarrassed about something you did by waiting until people forget about it
- 3 start living in a place where you intend to stay for a long time
- 4 accept something, often something that is not exactly what you want or is not the best

Exercises

53.1 Match the problems 1-6 with the responses a-f.

|---|---|---|--|
| 1 | My partner and I are so busy at work that we seem to be drifting apart. What should I do? | 4 | I always seem to pick girlfriends who let me down. What can I do? |
| 2 | How can I finish with my boyfriend without hurting his feelings too much? | 5 | I'm 35. Isn't it time I was thinking of settling down? |
| 3 | What can I do to get over the break-up of my marriage? I still love my wife. | 6 | I've decided never to get married. Do you agree with my friends that I will be missing out on a lot? |

- a) Become friends first – then you should know what she is really like before you take things any further.
- b) The right time can arrive at any age – when you meet the right person.
- c) Why not take up some new hobby together?
- d) Why make such a major decision about your future now? You may feel very differently in a few years' time.
- e) Time should slowly make things better for you.
- f) Could you try to make him want to split up with you first?

53.2 Rewrite these sentences replacing the phrasal verbs with another phrasal verb from the opposite page so that the sentences keep the same meanings.

- 1 My sister and her husband broke up last year.
- 2 Millie was very upset when her boyfriend broke up with her.
- 3 We had been drifting apart for a long time, so it was better to separate properly.

b) I'll bring my niece along at the weekend.

59.4 Write down four different ways in which you could invite someone to visit you at your place. Use a different phrasal verb each time.

59.5 Here are some more phrasal verbs connected with the theme of socialising. What do you think the phrasal verbs in bold mean? Use a dictionary if necessary.

Ivan Did you enjoy your date with Paul?

Anna Don't talk to me about Paul! He stood me up! I waited there for at least half an hour and then I decided to go to the cinema on my own. It was really annoying because my flatmate had wanted to tag along because she really wanted to see the film, but I wouldn't let her and then in the end I went all by myself. I thought I was going to have this lovely romantic evening! Paul has apologised and explained what happened, but I don't want to run across him for a while!

Preparing food and drink

Martha was having a dinner party for some friends. A week earlier she had bought all the ingredients she needed, measured them out¹, prepared a chicken casserole and put it in the freezer to make sure it did not go off². On the morning of the dinner party, she removed it from the freezer and thawed it out³. Then before her friends arrived she made sure that she put the chicken on⁴ and she made a salad. She heated up⁵ the casserole thoroughly, taking care that it did not boil over⁶.

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1 weigh or measure a small amount of something from a larger amount of something | 4 began to cook food |
| 2 become not good to eat because it is too old | 5 made it hot |
| 3 let it gradually become warmer so that it was not frozen any more | 6 flow over the side of the pan |

Serving food and drink

When her friends arrived, Martha poured out¹ drinks and handed round² olives and other snacks. She went round the room topping up³ glasses whenever she noticed that anyone needed a top-up⁴. Then they sat at the table and had the chicken casserole. Everyone said how well it went with⁵ the salad and nothing was left over⁶ at the end of the meal.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 filled glasses or cups with a drink | 4 (noun) more drink poured into a glass or cup (from the verb top up) |
| 2 offered something, especially food and drink, to each person in a group | 5 combined or tasted good with |

- 2 I think my sister lives on fish and chips.
- 3 Don't forget to thaw out the gâteau.
- 4 I don't think that chips go with caviar.

The weather forecast

It will brighten up¹ in the north of England tomorrow morning, but the sun won't last long and the region will soon cloud over² again. Rain in the east will clear up³ later. An area of high pressure means it should warm up⁴ over the next few days in most regions, except in the far north, where it will actually cool down⁵ a little because of strong north-easterly winds. On the south coast winds will pick up⁶ during the afternoon, becoming strong by the evening.

- 1 the sky will become lighter and the sun will start to shine
- 2 the sky will become covered with clouds
- 3 it will stop being rainy or cloudy

- 4 become warmer
- 5 become cooler
- 6 become stronger

B

Talking about the weather and its effects

Leo is talking about his camping trip to the Scottish mountains.

The weather was dreadful; we were there for a week and the storms just never let up¹. We were flooded out² twice in our tent and ended up staying in a hostel. It just poured down³ every day – one heavy downpour⁴ after another. We were rained off⁵ most days and couldn't do any serious walking. Then one day we thought the storms had blown over⁶, so we climbed one of the highest peaks in the area. It started to snow. Luckily there was a cabin at the summit, so we took shelter there. We were snowed in⁷ for two days before we could get out and go back down again. I shall never forget it as long as I live!

- 1 stopped or improved
- 2 had to leave a home or place because of a flood

Dear Diana,

Thank you for the lovely day we had with you. It was so kind of you to let us bring Anna's friend, Gina. Unfortunately, the only problem was the journey home. There had been a terrible pile-..... (1) on the motorway and, as a result, there was a tail..... (2) for at least six miles. In the end, we pulled (3) at a service station and waited there until it cleared. In the car park there, Gina nearly got knocked (4) as a car pulled (5) far too quickly from behind a parked lorry. We were very relieved when we finally dropped Gina (6) at her parents' and made our own way home.

Much love,
Chloe

The start of a political career

Interviewer Why did you decide to stand for¹ Parliament?

Politician Well, I'd been a social worker for a number of years and that had opened my eyes to the huge social divisions in this country. I firmly believed that these were wrong. I wanted to help bring in² laws that would lessen the divisions between the rich and the poor. I wanted to do away with³ taxes for the poorest members of society and to clamp down⁴ on rich people who were attempting to avoid paying tax. In short, I wanted to do everything I could to stand up for⁵ the principles that I believed in.

¹ compete in an election for an official position

² introduce

³ abolish or get rid of

⁴ do something to stop or limit a particular activity (noun = clampdown)

⁵ defend something that you believe is important

I learnt then that our party had entered into³ an agreement with the country's top business leaders and had promised not to increase taxes for the wealthy for the time being.

Interviewer Did you stand up to⁴ those influential MPs?

Politician Yes, I told them I was not in Parliament to carry out⁵ the wishes of big business.

¹ start to do something (noun = go-ahead: permission for something to start)

² supported

³ officially agreed to do something

⁴ state opinions forcefully and refuse to change your mind or do what others want

⁵ do something you have been told to do

Forming a new party

Interviewer Did other MPs in your party still stand by¹ you at this point?

Politician Not all of them, but a few very good people did stick by² me and we eventually decided to break away³ and form our own new party.

Interviewer So, what happened next?

Politician Unfortunately, none of us were re-elected at the next election, but we have been continuing with our campaigns and hope that at some point in the not too distant future we may be able to carry out⁴ our plans to make society a better and fairer place.

¹ continue to support

² continue to support

³ stop being part of a group because you disagree with them or do not want to be controlled by them

⁴ do something that you have said you will do

Most phrasal verbs are used in all the countries where English is the main language. However, as English has developed in different countries, some phrasal verbs have emerged with regional meanings. The distinctions between regional varieties of phrasal verbs are not clear-cut. In some parts of North America or Australia, UK phrasal verb equivalents are heard as frequently as their regional variations. Similarly, many phrasal verbs originating in the USA or Australia have spread to the UK through films and TV programmes.

North America

Here are some phrasal verbs more frequently used in North American varieties of English.

US verb	UK equivalent	meaning	example
bawl out	tell off	speaking angrily to someone	The boss bawled Jack out for losing the deal.
figure out	work out or suss out	find the solution to a problem or the answer to something	Let's try to figure out how much I owe you.
goof around/off	mess about/around	behave stupidly or waste time doing unimportant things	Tom spent too much time goofing around and failed his exams.
wash up	freshen up	clean your hands and face with soap and water (in UK English wash up means to wash the dishes)	I'm sure you'd like to wash up after your journey.

US English sometimes adds a particle where UK English would use the verb on its own. For example, an American might say Wait up! or Listen up! rather than Wait! or Listen! These are used mainly as imperatives and the up emphasises the idea that the speaker is giving a command. Americans can also visit with friends or meet with colleagues, whereas a British speaker would just visit or meet them.

B

Australia

Here are some phrasal verbs which are typical of Australian English.

Australian verb	UK equivalent	meaning	example barrack for	cheer for	give support to a team or person	I'll be barracking for you in the competition tomorrow.
belt into	throw yourself into	begin to do something quickly and with a lot of effort	We just belted into the job and got it finished in an hour.
get into	lay into	criticise	She really got into me. I didn't think I deserved so much criticism.
shoot through	do a runner	leave a place suddenly and often secretly	He's not here any more. He shot through a couple of days ago.

Exercises

69.1 Match the questions on the left with the most likely American English replies on the right.

- 43.2 Only breaking up would make most students happy.
Swotting up and mugging up both involve hard work.
Scraping through means only just passing an exam (but perhaps a student who had not worked hard would be happy!).
Being thrown out and dropping out show that you have not made a success of student life.

- 43.3 1 mug up or swot up
2 kept up
3 brush up on or mug up on or swot up on or polish up (on)

- 4 come up
- 5 scraped through
- 6 write up

- 8 go back

43.4 Alfie hardly swotted/mugged up at all for his exams. He brushed up on the history of the French Revolution, but no questions on the French Revolution came up in the exam. He was afraid that he would be thrown out of university for failing his exams. However, he did just manage to scrape through them and so he will be in college when we go back next term. He has promised to try to keep up with work next year as he is planning to sign up for a couple of quite difficult courses, including business studies. He'll have to polish up his French because the business studies course involves spending a term in France working in a business. He thinks he can just pick up* the language when he gets there, but I think he should study it before he goes because he only has school French.

* We can also say: He'll have to polish his French up ...

 We can also say: He thinks he can just pick the language up when he gets there ...
